MANDARIN ORIENTAL, SANYA TO HOST THE POPULAR MO KID'S CAMP THIS WINTER

Hong Kong, 17 December 2012 —Mandarin Oriental, Sanya is delighted to announce that it will again host its popular MO Kid's Camp for children aged 4 to 12 from 21 December 2012 until 28 February 2013.

Taking advantage of the resort's nationally protected coral bay, landscaped pools and gardens, the resort will host fun filled days of games, educational activities and creative arts and crafts.

Each day of week the camp features its own unique themed activities. Themes include 'Shipwrecked', a pirate themed day involving kayaking and snorkeling among the corals, treasure hunts and raft building, and 'Safari Gone Wild', which focuses on wild animals and adventure and includes finding interesting tropical animals and learning about the trees and fauna native to the area. All the games are fun and have been designed to entertain and broaden the horizons of the little ones who participate.

"We are delighted to be hosting the camp again for two months over the winter period" said Lori Kruk, Director of Spa and Recreation at Mandarin Oriental, Sanya. "The MO Kid's Camp is unique on Hainan Island. It offers full days of fun and excitement for our younger VIPs in a beautiful and private natural environment. We are fortunate to be blessed with year round warm and balmy weather which helps make the resort a true paradise for children".

Families with children wishing to enjoy the camp can take advantage of the MO Kid's Camp Promotion. Starting at CNY 1,855 per night, the promotion includes:

- Round trip shuttle service from Sanya International Airport
- 3 night stay
- In-room check-in
- Complimentary extra bed in room
- Daily breakfast in Pavilion Restaurant for 2 adults and up to 2 children aged 12 or below

-more-

- 1 day at the summer camp for one child and 15% discount for additional days and children
- 20% discount at the Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Sanya for parents to enjoy during their stay
- Late check-out until 3pm (subject to availability)

The offer is subject to 15% service charge and CNY 11 city tax per person per night. The offer is valid from 21 December 2012 to 28 February 2013 (excluding 24 December 2012 to 2 January 2013 and 9 to 15 February 2013). A minimum three night's stay is required and the promotion cannot be used in conjunction with any other promotion.
