MANDARIN ORIENTAL, KUALA LUMPUR GENERAL INFORMATION

Mandarin Oriental, Kuala Lumpur opened in October 1998. Developed as part of a joint venture with Kuala Lumpur City Centre (Holdings) Sdn Bhd, Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group holds 25% interest and manages the property.

As part of the Kuala Lumpur City Centre (KLCC) project, the hotel enjoys a prime location in the heart of one of Asia's premier capitals. Situated adjacent to the famed 88-storey PETRONAS Twin Towers, the hotel's strategic location guarantees that guests are at the centre of both the leisure and business aspects of the city.

Accommodation at Mandarin Oriental, Kuala Lumpur represents the epitome of luxury. The hotel features 643 guestrooms, including 41 elegantly appointed suites and 51 serviced apartments. Thoughtfully designed with comfort in mind, the rich woods, plush fabrics and engaging artworks will appeal to the most discerning traveller. Aimed at providing a residential feel, the in-room features include all the luxuries associated with a Mandarin Oriental guestroom and also cater to the businessman, with in-room technology such as fax and modem data ports. Non-smoking rooms are also available.

A new dimension in luxury living, the exclusive Mandarin Oriental Club, highlights seven private Mandarin Oriental Club floors, comprising 148 guest rooms, 10 Club Park Suites and one Presidential Suite. Each of these rooms overlooks either the KLCC Park or the city's impressive skyline.
