LUXURY, QUALITY AND INNOVATION: IDEAL FOR MEETINGS, GROUP AND INCENTIVE MARKET

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Mandarin Oriental, Washington D.C. ranked by Travel & Leisure magazine as the "Top Business Hotel in Washington, DC" sets the standard of service, accommodating the full range of group needs: conference, incentive, corporate retreat or reunion. The hotel's convenient location on Washington, D.C.'s southwest waterfront makes Mandarin Oriental, Washington D.C. the capital's only waterside hotel offering views of the Jefferson Memorial and Washington Monument, Potomac Tidal Basin and Washington Marina. With easy access to Ronald Reagan National Airport, Capitol Hill, Smithsonian Institution museums and the historic monuments, Mandarin Oriental, Washington D.C. is considered the city's most convenient "power meeting" hotel.

Mandarin Oriental, Washington D.C. has 38,000 square feet of function and pre-function space, including an 8,300-square-foot Grand Ballroom that accommodates up to 800 people for a sit-down dinner, and can be divided into three equal sections. The junior "Oriental Ballroom" measures 5,350 square feet and seats 450 people banquet-style, and is also divisible into thirds. There are nine breakout rooms ranging in size from 443 to 1,278 square feet, each of which are equipped with a built-in projection screen, a dry-erase board, a storage closet and built-in cabinets. There are wireless internet and mobile phone capabilities throughout the meeting and public areas of the hotel. The hotel's sales, catering and event management staff can design and facilitate meeting and incentive programs customized to suit individual, corporate and meeting planner needs. The hotel's waterfront location, elegant meeting space, luxurious guest rooms and suites and exceptional food and beverage presentations provide an all-encompassing experience for the meetings minded.

Customized Theme Parties and Events

Any event can be individually customized and designed to meet corporate and incentive needs. The Catering team takes an imaginative and intelligent approach to catering and will work closely with guests to create the perfect menu. Also, every client receives an event manager who will liaise with the client and oversee all details from start to finish.
