General Manager's Biography – Wolfgang M. Greiner

Wolfgang M. Greiner was appointed General Manager of Mandarin Oriental, Munich in February 2013. He is a veteran hotelier with over 20 years' luxury hospitality industry experience.

For the last eight years, Mr Greiner has been Area General Manager for the Schloss Fuschl Resort & Spa, Sheraton Fuschlsee-Salzburg and the Schloss Pichlarn Spa & Golf Resort in Austria.

Mr Greiner started his career in his hometown of Munich as a management assistant in hotels and hospitality at the Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten Kempinski, Munich. He left to gain international experience in Hamburg, New York, Bermuda (at the Elbow Beach Resort & Spa, which is now a Mandarin Oriental hotel) and Miami (Turnberry Isle Resort & Spa, a former Mandarin Oriental hotel). Returning to Europe Mr Greiner worked for the Schlosshotel Bühlerhöhe and was the General Manager of the Hotel Fürstenhof in Leipzig from 2002 to 2004.

With numerous contacts in his home town of Munich, combined with his many years of experience, Mr Greiner is well placed to lead this award-winning property.

Mr Greiner successfully graduated with a master's degree from the HTW Chur and University of Delaware.
