MANDARIN ORIENTAL
HYDE PARK
LONDON

For the speed enthusiasts in your family!

Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London and Goodwood present the perfect package for thrill seeking, adrenalin-loving fathers and sons - a unique two day adventure on Friday 8 March and Saturday 9 March 2013, guaranteed to be the drive of their life.

Car Fan's Fantasy

The day of performance driving will begin with father and son pitting their skills against each other through a range of driving challenges in New Minis on the world famous Goodwood Motor Circuit. This will be followed by a presentation from a famous young professional racing driver, sharing stories and secrets of life in the fast lane. Guests will then enjoy driving the famous Festival of Speed Hillclimb, cruising around the sweeping country roads surrounding Goodwood Estate and experiencing the thrill of "Hot laps" on Goodwood Motor Circuit. Enjoy the latest sports and super cars whilst accompanied by professional drivers, helping Dad to improve his driving skills and son to experience the thrill of speed in a controlled, safe environment. The day will close with a champagne Prize Giving at the Jackie Stewart Pavilion.

Based on Father and Son sharing a day of high-octane excitement, the package is priced from GBP 1,835*, exclusive of VAT, and includes:

- One night luxurious twin-bedded accommodation
- Full English breakfast in the dining room overlooking Hyde Park
- 24-hour valet parking
- Friday evening dinner at Bar Boulud, London
- An action-packed Saturday of exciting driving alongside professionals at Goodwood Motor Circuit
