

Discover Bangkok

Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok has created, 'Discover Bangkok, Oriental Style', a package that helps guests make the most out of their time in Bangkok to see, do and experience what interests them most in a city that has an overwhelming amount to offer. The 'Discover Bangkok' package includes an a la carte menu of carefully curated experiences created to suit a range of tastes and interests.

We look forward to welcoming you to Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok.

Cultural Journey

Includes a visit to Bangkok's most iconic temple, The Temple of Dawn, and a choice between visiting the Reclining Buddha (Wat Po) or the Queen Sirikit Museum of Textiles (including an exclusive guided tour with the resident curator of the Grand Palace). This journey also includes dinner at the Riverside Terrace restaurant and a 90-minute Thai massage with gentle stretching at the hotel's legendary Oriental Spa.

Heritage Journey

Includes a visit to the Vimanmek Teak Mansion Museum and the famed Jim Thompson house followed by traditional afternoon tea in the hotel's colonial-style Authors' Lounge. A Thai cuisine dinner at Sala Rim Naam and a 90 minute holistic Thai massage at the hotel's Oriental Spa is also included.

Wellness & Spa Journey

Immerse in Thai wellness and meditation practices with 90-minutes of yoga and guided meditation with the hotel's yogic healer, followed by the Oriental Spa's 90-minute Signature Treatment using a customized blend of essential oils and a hot herbal compress to massage the body into total relaxation. End the day with a healthy set dinner menu at Sala Rim Naam restaurant.

Master Chef Journey

Immerse yourself in the art of Thai cooking at the hotel's Oriental Thai Cooking School, Bangkok's oldest cooking school, with Chef Narain and a private lesson that culminates with a meal cooked during the class. Finish the day with the Oriental Spa's 90 minute Thai healing massage.

Artistic and Creative Journey

Explore Bangkok's most eclectic and vibrant creative districts of Bangrak and Klongsan previously associated with a sleepy and quiet residential areas are going through a renaissance and have become a neighbourhood revival. The two districts having seen a rise in the number of artists and innovative entities moving in. The programme consists of a one day tour exploring both sides of the river with a visit to a number of art galleries and craft shops such as The Jam Factory, ATA Gallery, P Tendercool, Serindia Gallery and H Gallery. The tour culminates with a sumptuous 90 minute Thai massage and a delicious Cantonese dinner at the Mandarin Oriental Bangkok's renowned art deco style China House restaurant.

Floral Journey

Mandarin Oriental's Floral Director leads a private tour of Bangkok's Flower Market with its intoxicating aromas and exotic flowers, followed by a one hour private step-by-step floral design class. A soothing Thai massage at the Oriental Spa and a four-course set dinner at the hotel's renowned Sala Rim Naam restaurant ends the day.