Most Outstanding City Spa

Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group has been recognized consistently by global influential publications as an outstanding hotel company. Below are quotes from a selection of these publications in the last year that highlight individual properties and the group.

He's a fan. She's a fan. Who, really, is not a fan of Mandarin Oriental. The venerable hotelier (somehow "chain" doesn't quite do this esteemed group justice) continues to grow in leaps and bounds.

MANDARIN ORIENTAL HOTEL GROUP

When it comes to hospitality, Hong Kong sets the bar high: The city is the birthplace of Mandarin Oriental, a legend that has since been developed into a global hotel chain synonymous with comfort and luxury.

Travel + Leisure

Though all of their properties are reliably beautiful, none of their 29 hotels around the world feel standard.

Town & Country

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BANGKOK

This grande dame remains Bangkok's destination hotel: the facilities are second to none — riverside restaurants, outdoor pools, award-winning spa and the historic Author's Wing, where pinkies are raised over afternoon tea and champagne glasses clink at evening soirees.

National Geographic Traveller

The grand Royal Suite is fit for a king, while 12 new suites have been added to the adjacent Garden Wing. They are fresh, elegant, comfortable; a beautiful mash-up of exotic wood and pale silks. And the staff, some of whom have been with the hotel for over 50 years, are faultless: they will greet you and treat you like a long-lost family member, only with far better manners.

Tatler

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, HONG KONG

Returning here after 20 years confirms it is one of my favourite places on the planet. Refurbished, re-energised, but still an enduring symbol of what Hong Kong endeavours to be, it remains a unique blend of Chinese and British style.

High Life (British Airways)

THE LANDMARK MANDARIN ORIENTAL, HONG KONG

Compared to the soaring towers housing the most famous Hong Kong hotels, the Mandarin sibling The Landmark Mandarin Oriental has always seemed like a secret. Sophisticated, intimate, elegant and quiet, it's a hideaway in a noisy, fast paced place. With the opening of the Entertainment Suite, the refuge element has gone even higher.

Forbes Travel Guide

MANDARIN ORIENTAL PUDONG, SHANGHAI

Chic, sharp contemporary Shanghai. It will come as no surprise to fans of Mandarin Oriental that the service here is flawless. The facilities too are near impossible to fault; a seductive 25-metre indoor swimming pool, a sprawling tech-savvy gym, a comprehensive business centre and luxurious Club Lounge.

The Telegraph

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, TAIPEI

Mandarin Oriental, Taipei has done much to enhance the city's appeal to high-end travellers. Inspired by the grandest of French chateaux, it is undoubtedly one of the most beautiful properties in the entire Mandarin Oriental portfolio. Its lobby is unexpectedly majestic and the attention to detail throughout is superb.

The Telegraph

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, TOKYO

Naturally, Mandarin Oriental, Tokyo offers a sumptuous hotel experience, superlative service and designed environs that ooze contemporary Japanese elegance.

Forbes Travel Guide

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BARCELONA

Ideal location aside, the hotel itself is a work of art. Set in a former banking headquarters, Mandarin Oriental, Barcelona is a sleek, airy space where guests can find tranquility in a city that is constantly in transit.

GQ

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BODRUM

Wrapped around its own private bay on the northern shores of Turkey's beautiful Aegean coast, it's hard to imagine a more laid-back yet sophisticated and exclusive retreat than Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum. Once you enter the grounds of the resort there's nothing to remind you of the outside world.

The Telegraph

MANDARIN ORIENTAL HYDE PARK, LONDON

You can't ask for a better London locale. Tucked in bustling Knightsbridge, bordering Royal Hyde Park and the fashionable boutiques of Sloane Street, Mandarin Oriental is the only hotel in a royal park.

Watch! CBS Magazine

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MILAN

Since opening two years ago, Mandarin Oriental has come into Milan with a bang. There's Seta, its two-Michelin star restaurant, overseen by chef Antonio Guida, who specializes in modern Italian cooking. The hotel embodies a key strain of Milan's DNA with extraordinary suites designed by two of the city's most famous designers: Piero Fornasetti and Gio Ponti. The Fornasetti suite is nothing short of a masterpiece – and is worth a trip to the Mandarin just to live amidst his exuberant pieces, even for a few days.

Town and Country Magazine

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, PARIS

If rue Saint-Honoré, where this hotel is situated, is all about conspicuous consumption, Mandarin Oriental, Paris itself is a haven of elegance and understated luxury.

The Telegraph

We have to make a hot fuss over the 138-room Mandarin Oriental, Paris, an ultramodern temple of style on the rue Saint-Honoré. Behind the Art Deco facade of this vaguely Asian-influenced, perceptibly feminine palace, you'll find a sleek sumptuousness.

Condé Nast Traveler

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, PRAGUE

In the quiet, cobblestoned Mala Strana district, this Gothic-Baroque beauty feels like an urban oasis hidden in plain sight.

CNN

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MIAMI

Mandarin Oriental, Miami is out of this world. Your every wish is granted at this five-star stunner, whether you are completing an important business transaction or simply looking for the ultimate experience in relaxation.

USA Today

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, NEW YORK

Imagine a place in New York City where you can watch all of it unfold, while still relaxing in exquisite, luxurious surroundings. That is Mandarin Oriental, New York, an escape located directly in the center of it all. With impeccable service as icing on the cake, the Mandarin Oriental is a must-stay in NYC.

Pursuitist

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, WASHINGTON D.C.

The hotel is perfectly situated for both leisure and business travelers. Whatever time of year you decide to visit, Mandarin Oriental, Washington D.C. is a sanctuary in elegance for travelers from around the world. If you want to totally relax and rejuvenate while you are here, visit the spa for some proper pampering. This is an urban oasis.
