MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BODRUM'S SUMMERTIME LUXURY BREAKS OFFER FOR GCC GUESTS

Hong Kong, 10 May 2016 -- Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum is offering guests from the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) states an opportunity to indulge in five-star luxury on the Turkish Riviera this summer. Surrounded by pine trees and olive groves, and with stunning views of the aptly named Paradise Bay, the resort is a tranquil retreat where guests receive dining and spa benefits if they book its Luxury Breaks accommodation offer.

Surrounded by a garden of one million native plants, the resort blends indoor with outdoor, which guests experience on arrival when they enter the Welcome Lounge, a lofty wooden terrace with a panoramic view of the bay. With its two private beaches, elegant rooms and suites, and nine bars and restaurants serving Turkish, Italian and Japanese cuisine, the resort is a short drive away from some of the city's popular attractions, making it an ideal base for enjoying Bodrum.

Guests who book the Luxury Breaks offer receive a daily dining or spa credit of EUR 100 per day, or EUR 300 when reserving a suite. Room rates start from EUR495 per night for a minimum stay of two nights. The offer is valid until 5 September 2016.

With its calm vistas over the bay, The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum provides treatments using hand-ground ingredients from its own garden. The 2,700-square-metre Spa has a 26-metre indoor swimming pool, heat and water facilities, 12 treatment rooms including a Couple's Spa Suite, and two outdoor cabanas. The VIP Spa Suite has its own private Turkish hammam bath.

Families can reside in the utmost comfort at one of the resort's six spacious villas. With breathtaking views over the Aegean Sea, the stunning two-storey Mandarin Villa offers unrivalled luxury with four bedrooms, indoor and outdoor dining areas, beautiful inner courtyard and spectacular outdoor terrace and pool. Also, it has a steam room, sauna and fitness room.
