CELEBRATE ROMANCE AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BOSTON

Hong Kong, 6 February, 2014 – Mandarin Oriental, Boston invites guests to indulge their sweethearts this Valentine’s Day and throughout the month of February. Whether celebrating with a new rose inspired treatment from the Forbes Five-Star Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Boston, planning a romantic getaway for two to the city or enjoying an intimate dinner at Asana Restaurant, guests will fall in love with these Valentine’s Day experiences.

A New Kind of Rose at The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Boston

On February 3, The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Boston will launch its new Rose Infinity facial treatment. Developed by Aromatherapy Associates, Rose Infinity is a collection of groundbreaking age-defense skincare. This skincare incorporates the very latest technology in extraction of powerful natural ingredients including soy and yeast proteins and stem cells from the rarest plants; this formula delivers quick results in three weeks. Rose Infinity achieves instant long lasting results that noticeably lift tone and firm the skin, leaving a flawless, healthy and younger looking complexion.

Rose Infinity is available as a 1 hour and 20 minute facial treatment for USD200 on weekdays and USD220 on weekends. Enhance results by including an Aroma Radiance Lift with the Rose Infinity facial. The Aroma Radiance Lift uses sophisticated micro currents to re-educate the muscles of the face and neck, seriously lifting, toning and plumping the skin to visibly improve natural radiance. This 1 hour and 50 minute facial treatment is available for USD355 on weekdays and USD375 on weekends. As a special Valentine’s Day gift from The Spa, guests who book this treatment on Valentine’s Day will receive a Rose Infinity gift so that they may continue their spa experience at home.
