IN TIME FOR THE NEW YEAR, MANDARIN ORIENTAL, GENEVA UNVEILS A SPECIAL SWISS-MADE OFFER

Hong Kong, 10 January 2014 – Ideal for those looking to enjoy today's ultimate luxury and learn how to master a most precious asset: Time. Mandarin Oriental, Geneva offers an exclusive and unique retreat which combines a relaxing two night stay in a beautiful room facing the Rhône river with a tailor-made Time Management course and a Yoga session.

Guests booking Mandarin Oriental, Geneva's It's All About Time package will enjoy a welcome drink upon arrival and a relaxing overnight stay with views over the city and mountains. A master teacher from NGO Management Association will guide guests in a unique four-hour Effective Time Management course, revealing secrets on how to optimise time management and focus on achieving both professional and personal goals. In the afternoon there is time for a healthy and relaxing mind and body balance with an hour-long introductive Yoga session, with master coach Julien Levy. After a productive and enlightening day, guests can explore the city and return to enjoy a delicious dinner at Le Sud restaurant.

Valid on 21 February, 28 March and 2 May, for a minimum stay of two nights, the It's All About Time package at Mandarin Oriental, Geneva is priced from CHF 820 per night and includes:

- Luxurious accommodation in a Premier River view room
- Daily Buffet breakfast at Le Sud or in-room
- Welcome drink and specially created amenity
- Four hour Effective Time Management course on Saturday
