MANDARIN ORIENTAL HOTELS RECOGNISED AT RECENT SPACHINA AWARDS

Hong Kong, 12 September 2012 – At the most recent SpaChina Awards Mandarin Oriental, Macau won the ‘Best Hotel Spa in China’ and Mandarin Oriental, Sanya was awarded the ‘Best Destination Spa of the Year’. In addition, Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong received the award for ‘Most Novel Facial Treatment of the Year’ for its Utopia Advanced Anti-Ageing Facial which uses naturally derived skincare products by Gaylia Kristensen, Australia.

The awards, which are in their third year, recognize the leaders and innovators in the spa industry. Andrew Gibson, Group Director of Spa said, “We are delighted to have been honoured again in the SpaChina Awards, and are pleased that the hard work and consistency of our spa teams are being recognised on the mainland. We remain committed to our spa philosophy of delivering authentic and holistic experiences, and are focused on providing a consistent level of service excellence to our guests.”

The Spas at Mandarin Oriental are havens for contemplation and discovery. Guided by our oriental heritage but influenced by local cultural diversity, the Group has created distinctive concepts with a unique sense of place in every location, with highly sophisticated spa offerings designed to offer a complete holistic experience that goes well beyond simply delivering massages to tired bodies. Our highly trained therapists are thoroughly educated to the Group’s own exacting standards, and are all committed to excellence and take pride in delivering personalized, dedicated service.

The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Macau offers holistic rejuvenation and relaxation in a serene, meditative setting. It offers eight treatment rooms with single and couples’ suites, a room for Thai massage, a VIP suite containing Macau’s first heated scrub table, and a full range of manicure and pedicure services.
