MANDARIN ORIENTAL, KUALA LUMPUR OFFERS AN OASIS OF GASTRONOMIC DELIGHTS

Diners at Mandarin Oriental, Kuala Lumpur will be enticed by the diverse selection of cuisine available in each of the hotel's signature dining venues. Located within the city centre and next to the iconic 88-storey Petronas Twin Towers - the hotel has an innovative twist to its restaurants, providing a cuisine which moves away from traditional hotel fare to one that has both International and local appeal.

The hotel's all-day dining café located on the ground floor, Mosaic was designed by internationally renowned Spin Design Studio from Japan. Its concept illustrates Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group's "Sense of Place", where local history, culture and sensibility are incorporated into the design. Lavish buffet breakfast, lunch and dinner are served at Mosaic, ranging from local specialities to International favourites at interactive kitchens within the restaurant. The outlet is open 24 hours daily, offering buffet breakfast, lunch and dinner with a la carte dishes served all day long.

Adjacent to Mosaic is Lounge on the Park which serves the most luscious afternoon tea and perfect for an afternoon tête-à-tête or visit The Mandarin Cake Shop for freshly baked cakes, breads, macarons and chocolates.

On the first floor of the hotel is the Cantonese restaurant Lai Po Heen, indicative of the wealthy homes of respected tycoons in turn-of-the-century Malaya.

Lai Po Heen serves traditional Cantonese cuisine, specialising in classic Cantonese delicacies and a wide array of dim sum. The highlight of the restaurant is an open Chinese kitchen where flaming woks and a hierarchy of Chinese chefs set the scene. The restaurant is open daily for lunch from 12pm to 2:30pm, while dinner is served from 7pm to 10:30pm. On Saturday, Sunday and public holidays, the restaurant is open for lunch from 10:30am to 2:30pm, while dinner remains at the same opening hours.
