

REACH PEAK POTENTIAL WITH THE RENOWNED DR. JOHN ROGERSON AT THE LANDMARK MANDARIN ORIENTAL

Optimise vitality and improve immunity with Dr Rogerson's hair profiling and energy field imaging scans

Hong Kong, 1 April 2015 – The Landmark Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong welcomes Dr. John Rogerson, a renowned functional health expert, to The Oriental Spa from 20 April to 5 May 2015.

Dr. Rogerson uses Hair Profiling and Energy Field imaging/EFi to understand where health issues are sited within our bodies that may be overlooked by traditional medicine which looks from the outside in. By this scientifically advanced yet holistic method, Dr. Rogerson identifies likely factors holding people back physically and emotionally. He provides a tailor-made healthcare plan which unlocks the secrets to enable guests to reach their peak potential, as well as offering methods to relieve pain and induce deep relaxation. He specialises in life enhancing information and ways to optimise vitality and improve immunity.

Hailed as a visionary in the field of complementary and integrated medicine, Dr. Rogerson is a biophysicist who has spent 17 years researching and learning the efficacy of natural, complementary medicine and wellness practices with clinics and institutions around the world. He is a Qualified Reflexologist, Reiki Grand Master and Specialised Kinesiologist, he also gives Ayurvedic Massage and Ajna Light sessions. As the inventor of the EFi Scan and co-developer of Hair profiling services, Dr. Rogerson offers a solution-focused counseling service, with effective treatments in easy to follow plans.

With a few strands of hair, his innovative Hair Test provides a wealth of information on a person's wellbeing and determines sensitivities with levels of vitamins, minerals, amino and fatty acids, toxicity (whether metal, chemical, electrical sensitivity or radiation build up), an indication of the microbiological status (parasites, bacteria, fungus, virus), and identifies which food to enjoy or steer clear of for optimal health.

A safe and accurate visual method, Energy Field Imaging shows the body's energetic status in vivid colours and coherent patterns. It unveils where stress and ease are sited, and reveals the body's energy flows by showing where it blocks or flows freely. The EFi Scan pinpoints lifestyle deficiencies and Dr. Rogerson will advise how to best counteract them by offering advice and a health protocol to help strengthen one's immunity and improve vitality.
