Located within CityCenter, a showcase of sustainable design, guests will find conservation and 21st century luxuries coexist comfortably at Mandarin Oriental, Las Vegas. In addition to the technological advances, it's the intangible pleasures that will delight, such as the gracious and sincere service that all guests have at their fingertips.

Presidential Suite Overview

The Taipan Suite is the grand two-bedroom suite located on the 20th floor with incredible views over Las Vegas Boulevard and CityCenter. The suite has a contemporary feel with chic Asian touches and a sleek, modern design. The two spacious bedrooms and living room are decorated in a rich palette of browns and creams with vibrant splashes of red and gold. Dark wood furnishings, sumptuous silk cushions and elegant Asian figurines can be seen throughout. There is a private dining room that seats eight guests, which is serviced by an adjoining kitchen with butler entrance. In addition, guests have use of a study, separate powder room and, in the living room, a cocktail bar stocked with wines, liquors and gourmet snacks.

The Emperor Suite is the largest one-bedroom suite in the hotel and is located on the 21st floor. Surrounded by spectacular views of Las Vegas, it is designed in a striking black and white palette with elegant Oriental touches and chic, contemporary styling. Offering the perfect location for exclusive parties, the suite's open plan kitchen makes private dinners an event, while a sitting room, bar and dining room provides ample space for guests. A media room is equipped with Bang and Olufsen surround sound and comfortably seats eight guests for private screenings.

The Mandarin Suite, located on the 22nd floor, combines the classic glamour of the Art Deco era with the serenity of the Orient. This two-bedroom, two-bathroom suite is simply sublime. Using soft creams and browns to create a decorative color palette that is stylish and soothing, this suite is ideal for guests looking for lavish comfort, space and privacy. The master bedroom is furnished with a large king bed swathed in white linen, dark wood side tables and elegantly upholstered armchairs with floor-to-ceiling windows over The Strip. The suite's most talked-about feature is its main bathroom, which is a vision of designer relaxation with a huge sunken bath overlooking the city and a large walk-in shower. The suite also includes a magnificent living room, study and dining area.
