MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MIAMI SETS PRECEDENT FOR LUXURY

Mandarin Oriental, Miami, open to guests since November 2000, provides unsurpassed levels of luxury and service in Miami. The urban oasis is ideally located on Brickell Key, a 44-acre island in Biscayne Bay considered one of Miami's most prestigious commercial and residential locations, just minutes from Miami's international financial district and convenient to Miami International Airport, Brickell City Center, South Beach, Wynwood Arts District, the Design District and Coconut Grove. In 2017, the property was awarded the Forbes Travel Guide Five-Star Award for the hotel, Azul restaurant and The Spa for the fifth consecutive year.

The deluxe 326-room waterfront hotel, with its contemporary and dynamic design, features Miami's most spacious guest rooms and suites, all of which were renovated in 2010. The tri-level Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Miami provides a combination of pampering and rejuvenating treatments for mind, body and spirit, along with an exclusive Beauty by Mandarin Oriental line featuring results-oriented treatments. Other hotel features include a comprehensive fitness center, infinity-edge swimming pool, pool cafe and jogging trail circling the island, chic shopping experiences at Karma and Shanghai Tang boutiques, Azul, the 120-seat, award-winning signature restaurant, waterfront Peruvian restaurant La Mar by Gastón Acurio, Peruvian punch cocktails at YAKU by La Mar and the chic MO Bar + Lounge, a lounge that features freshly muddled cocktails and overlooks Biscayne Bay. Conference and banqueting facilities offering 15,000-square-feet of meeting space accommodate more than 600 people.

Guest Rooms

The hotel's spacious guest rooms and suites evoke a serene, residential feel and provide spectacular views from balconies and terraces overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, Biscayne Bay and the Miami skyline. The guest room interiors draw on the sophistication of a cosmopolitan city with diverse cultural influences. A tranquil and elegant haven, the guest rooms combine contemporary touches from South Florida with exotic Asian elements, such as the bamboo hardwood floors in the hotel's suites to the Spanish marble bathroom tiles in all rooms. All guest rooms are equipped with dual phone lines, cordless phone, wireless high speed internet access, flat screen LCD TVs and an iPod Sound Dock Music System.

Spa Facilities

The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Miami is a tri-level sanctuary offering panoramic waterfront views and holistic treatments blending elements of East and West. Each spa experience has been created as a sequence of rituals and treatments inspired by the elements of life and oriental traditions. Glass elevators transport guests from the lobby level and pool deck to The Spa, with 18 treatment rooms, including six private suites (and three couple suites), along with a Beauty Room designated for the exclusive results-oriented treatment line, Beauty by Mandarin Oriental. All suites have glass windows overlooking the bay. Adjoining the Spa is a comprehensive fitness center offering guests the luxury of wellness with sweeping vistas of the Brickell skyline.

Dining

La Mar by Gastón Acurio, a waterfront restaurant featuring the acclaimed Peruvian cuisine of celebrity chef Gastón Acurio with YAKU by La Mar nearby for guests to enjoy a Peruvian punch cocktail al fresco before or after their award-winning meal.

MO Bar + Lounge, an elegant bar and lounge, boasts the most expansive views of the Biscayne Bay with two-story, floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the waterfront and the Miami skyline.

Retail Facilities

The urban resort features a retail facility that provides everything from sundries and logo apparel to souvenirs, accessories and homeware items. Karma is a luxury shop that offers sundries and necessities as well as men and women's clothing and stylish accessories such as sunglasses and tote bags.
