The Oriental Penthouse Suite. The stunning “Penthouse Suite”, sitting high atop the 20th floor, is truly one-of-a-kind. This ultimate escape boasts features including a living room with working fireplace, a formal dining room that entertains eight, a fully-equipped kitchen that was “christened” by Luciano Pavarotti, a piano, oversized master bath the size of a guestroom and technologically advanced media presentation room with a fully equipped 75-inch Samsung ultra-high-definition TV. A private balcony wraps around this remarkable accommodation, while the sleeping quarters with king bed adjoin the vast bathroom with its oversized shower, freestanding tub, and floor-to-ceiling windows.

The Mandarin Presidential Suite. The “Presidential Suite” boasts a stunning spa serenity room with an infinity-edge soaking bath, relaxation area for massages, a two-person glass-enclosed steam shower and a personal therapist on call 24 hours a day. Situated on the 19th floor, the suite also features a large living room, formal dining room, full-service kitchen complete with a private chef offering customized, gourmet menus, stunning audio/visual equipment with two 55-inch Samsung ultra-high-definition TVs, master bedroom and two and half baths. The private balcony offers breath-taking views of Biscayne Bay and the Miami skyline.

Family Suites. Family Suites provide the option of two or three-bedrooms so that families can enjoy luxurious accommodation with a generously spacious, residential feel. Families can opt for a Skyline Suite with one or two connecting rooms, or for a larger option they may choose a Premier Bayview Suite with a connecting room. This provides the ultimate family travel solution for both immediate and extended families.
