HOTEL GASTRONOMY THE OTHER WAY

Following an extensive refurbishment of the public areas in 2015, Mandarin Oriental, Munich has established a new and innovative gastronomy concept. This includes three dining outlets, which are already firm favorites of hotel guests and local Munich-residents alike; namely Matsuhisa, Munich, Bar31 and The Lounge.

Matsuhisa, Munich – A Premiere in Germany

One the first floor, atop the new curved staircase, Matsuhisa, Munich symbolises the introduction of the award-winning cuisine of internationally celebrated Chef Nobuyuki (Nobu) Matsuhisa to Munich and Germany. The restaurant follows the same successful format as the original Matsuhisa in Beverly Hills as well as the chef's five other exclusive outposts around the world. Offering Nobu Matsuhisa's renowned 'New Style Japanese-Peruvian' cuisine, the menu features signature dishes as well as individual creations by Chef Loris di Santo.

Extract from the menu:

Matsuhisa 'Slider' with Wagyu Beef, Yellowtail Sashimi Jalapeno, Mushroom Salad with Yuzu Dressing, Beef Tenderloin Tataki with Tosazu and Onion Ponzu, Black Cod Yuzu Miso, King Crab Tempura with Amazu Ponzu, Anticucho Peruvian Style Tofu Steak.

The restaurant accommodates 95 guests including eight seats at the exclusive live cooking counter. Furthermore Matsuhisa, Munich features a semi-private dining space for up to 10 people.

Designed by Amsterdam-based FG Stijl, Matsuhisa, Munich reflects Nobu's Japanese origins. The luxurious and timeless decor provides provide a warm and inviting atmosphere in brown and gold, using natural materials including stone, leather and wood.

Matsuhisa, Munich opens daily from 19.00 to 23.30. Furthermore, the restaurant serves special menus and bento boxes during lunch time in the rooms of Bar31 – daily from 12.00 to 14.00.

Bar31 – More than just a bar

Located on the ground floor, the brand new Bar31 is the perfect place to enjoy drinks before dinner at Matsuhisa, Munich or to spend an evening with colleagues and friends. Exotic cocktails are served alongside delicious bar snacks, including signature Matsuhisa dishes.

Bar31 features a rounded stone bar with an oversized freestanding champagne cooler as its centrepiece. Elegantly designed with moss, silver and petrol blue interiors, the bar will exude a sophisticated atmosphere that evolves from relaxed to vibrant as evening approaches. Bar31 opens daily from 12.00 to 14.00 (Matsuhisa Lunch) and from 18.00 to 1.00 (to 2.00 on Fridays and Saturdays).

The Lounge – Munich’s favourite living room

Right next to the newly designed lobby area, The Lounge marks an ideal retreat and meeting place for hotel guests. Two fire places and a mix of high standard, cosy furniture give a feeling of coming home – especially to the hotel’s long-standing regular guests. Besides coffee, afternoon tea and cake specialties, international snacks are being served at midday and evening. Dominating colours are gold, a bright green and purple.

The Lounge opens daily from 8.30 to 23.00.

China Moon Rooftop Terrace – on top of the city

Open during the summer months, the stunning China Moon Roof Terrace is one of Munich’s best-kept secrets. Guests can dine al fresco, sip cocktails or take a dip in the heated pool (for in-house guests only). Surrounded by simple, yet stylish wicker chairs and sofas covered with vibrant orange cushions, Oriental statues and large potted plants, the design mixes chic Asian touches with classic Western garden style.

The menu includes a mix of Asian, Mediterranean and Middle Eastern delicacies which can be enjoyed with the city’s most spectacular views, which takes in everything from the twin domes of Munich Cathedral to the undulating alpine horizon. China Moon Roof Terrace is open daily for dinner, from May to September.
