WOLFGANG GREINER – A GENERAL MANAGER BACK AT HOME

Wolfgang M. Greiner was appointed General Manager of Mandarin Oriental, Munich in February 2013. He is a veteran hotelier with more than 20 years of luxury hospitality industry experience and very familiar with Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group.

Born in Munich, he started his career as a management trainee at Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten Kempinski, Munich. He moved on to gain international experience in New York, Bermuda (at the Elbow Beach Resort & Spa, which was previously operated by Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group) and Miami (Turnberry Isle Resort & Spa, also a hotel formerly operated by Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group). Returning to Europe, he worked for the Schlosshotel Bühlerhöhe and was the General Manager of the Hotel Fürstenhof, a Luxury Collection Hotel in Leipzig from 2002 to 2004.

Before returning to his hometown, Mr. Greiner held the position of the Area General Manager for the Schloss Fuschl Resort & Spa, Sheraton Fuschlsee-Salzburg and the Schloss Pichlarn Spa & Golf Resort in Austria for nine years. During this time, he furthermore successfully graduated with a master's degree from the HTW Chur and University of Delaware.

With strong connections in the Bavarian capital, combined with his excellent and well-founded experience, Mr Greiner is perfectly placed to lead this award-winning property.
