GENERAL MANAGER'S BIOGRAPHY – WERNER ANZINGER

Werner Anzinger is a seasoned professional with 20 years' experience in luxury hospitality, the last 14 of which were spent with Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group. Werner Anzinger arrived in Prague in June of 2011, following a successful four-year stint as Resident Manager and, for nearly a year, Acting General Manager at Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London, the group's largest European property. Previously, he worked in various executive positions in hotel management as well as food & beverage operations at several of the group's other hotels, including The Excelsior, Hong Kong; Mandarin Oriental, Munich; and Mandarin Oriental Elbow Beach, Bermuda. Prague is Anzinger's first general manager post.

"I am thrilled to arrive in Prague, which is both a beautiful destination and a very competitive market. The property itself is exceptional in every way and I very much look forward to working with the local team to solidify our international reputation as a top luxury hotel," says Anzinger. Among his other goals he lists increasing Prague's appeal as a culinary destination and raising the profile of the hotel's award-winning Spa.

An Austrian national, Werner Anzinger holds an MBA from the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology in Melbourne, Australia, and is a graduate of the Professional Development Program in Food & Beverage Management and Marketing from Cornell University in Ithaca, New York.

About Mandarin Oriental, Prague

Mandarin Oriental, Prague is an intimate hotel located in a former Dominican monastery set amidst the palaces and gardens of Prague's historic Malá Strana district. With a former Renaissance chapel housing the award-winning Spa, modern Asian and European delicacies in Essensia restaurant, and understated contemporary design blending local history with modern luxury, the hotel is a private oasis of sophistication and style in the very heart of Central Europe's most beautiful city.
