A BOHEMIAN CHRISTMAS AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, PRAGUE

Hong Kong, 19 September 2013 – One of Europe's most romantic destinations, Prague, becomes even more magical when the city's breathtaking architecture is dusted with snow, streets are filled with music and the Christmas markets perfumed with the heart-warming aroma of mulled wine and roasted chestnuts. Mandarin Oriental, Prague is welcoming visitors to experience the magic of the Christmas season with a special package offer, and bespoke decorations throughout.

Guests can admire exclusive angel's touch crystal decorations by renowned Czech glass designer, Bořek Šípek. The designer's Uriel chandelier and Rafael candleholder will be on display at the hotel lobby while further items of the collection will also be found in the hotel's Essensia restaurant and Barego bar.

The Bohemian Christmas package includes:

- Daily buffet breakfast for two at Essensia restaurant
- Special daily EUR50 credit to be used in the hotel restaurant, bar or in the award winning spa
- Complimentary late checkout (until 4pm, subject to availability)
- A Prague Christmas market map

Package rates start from EUR355 per night based on a one-night stay for two in a Deluxe Room. The package is available until 27 December 2013 and based on availability; additional nights are available at a Bed & Breakfast rate.

For an additional EUR150, guests can choose to have a traditional Christmas tree trimmed with handmade baubles and decorations by a team of expert florists put up in their room or suite. Three beautifully packed complementary baubles will make the perfect gift to take home as a keepsake.
