MANDARIN ORIENTAL, SAN FRANCISCO INVITES SPA-GOERS TO “RESET” THIS NEW YEAR

San Francisco’s acclaimed luxury spa offers a sanctuary for travelers with new package

Hong Kong, 12 December 2012 – After the bustle of the holiday season, The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, San Francisco is inviting guests to reset, rejuvenate, and revitalize this New Year. The Reset Spa package allows guests to retreat to the luxurious surroundings of Mandarin Oriental, San Francisco and feel their stress float away at the city’s newest luxury spa.

The journey begins as guests check-in to the hotel’s newly restyled guestrooms, located on the top 11 floors of San Francisco’s 3rd tallest building. Ideal for the travelers seeking a unique view of the city, the guestrooms seem to float among the clouds and provide a sanctuary for guests to unwind. For guests not wishing to fully disconnect, the hotel offers the latest technology in guestrooms with the creation of desks featuring built-in power outlets, a Mercedes S550 Sedan 2013 house car service to ease travel to and from appointments, and a dedicated Les Clefs d’Or Concierge team to provide entertaining recommendations and bookings.

To complete the stay, guests will be offered the new 1 hour 20 minute “Red Eye” treatment at the new spa. Perfect for guests travelling long distances, this body treatment works on both levels to help reset and recover from the journey whether staying for leisure or business. This treatment incorporates brisk dry body brushing to exfoliate and encourage healthy circulation followed by a tailored full body massage.

Prices for the Reset Spa package start at USD725 for the individual traveler or USD875 for two guests and are available from 1 January 2013, subject to availability plus taxes and gratuities.
