Hong Kong, 18 July 2017 – Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai has been named one of Shanghai's top hotels at Travel + Leisure's The 2017 World's Best Awards. The accolade means the hotel has won nearly 70 awards since opening in 2013, confirming its status as a luxury leader in Shanghai. Guests can experience the hotel's legendary service and enjoy a complimentary third night's stay when booking its One More Night offer.

Each year, Travel + Leisure readers vote for their favourite hotels, resorts and other tourism operators in the magazine's annual The World's Best Awards. In the 2017 survey they named Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai as one of the top five hotels in Shanghai.

According to Travel + Leisure, "Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai stands out for the contemporary design of its 362 rooms, where subtle Chinese influences include colourful silk floral fabrics and glossy lacquered furniture pieces."

Clemens Hoerth, General Manager of Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai, says, "We are extremely honoured to be included on this prestigious list of best hotels in Shanghai. The awards are based on reviews and opinions of world travellers, so this is truly valuable recognition from our guests. It means so much to the Mandarin Oriental team in Shanghai."

Accolades won by Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai earlier in 2017, include a Forbes Five-Star rating for the hotel and its spa, a number one ranking at the TripAdvisor Travellers' Choice Award for best hotels in Shanghai, and receiving "Star Performer" recognition for its food and beverage at the Hurun Report's Best of the Best Awards.

Located on the east bank of the Huangpu River, the stylishly contemporary hotel has 362 rooms and 210 fully serviced executive apartments. Two-thirds of its 4,000 modern art pieces on display in rooms and communal areas were created by Chinese artists.
