EXPERIENCE THE ‘TASTE’ OF MANDARIN ORIENTAL, WASHINGTON D.C., AND ENJOY THE FINEST IN CULINARY OFFERINGS IN THE NATION’S CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Mandarin Oriental, Washington D.C. has successfully brought chic and dynamic dining opportunities to the district’s waterfront.

Muze is the hotel’s all-day dining restaurant. Using the finest local produce combined with the distinctive flavors of South-East Asia, Chef Mark McDonnell offers a tantalizing menu of international dishes with a delicious Asian feel. Offering the ease of all-day dining, combined with a relaxed atmosphere and waterside views, Muze’s menu showcases cuisine that reflects its ‘East meets West Kitchen’ concept, complemented by universal dishes that everyone will recognize and enjoy.

The Empress Lounge is a focal point of the hotel’s main lobby featuring large windows with a unique view of the Potomac River and the hotel’s angelic garden. Offering light fare, signature cocktails as well as weekend afternoon tea service, Empress Lounge the place to see and be seen.

An inviting escape from the rigors of the city, the Empress Lounge is a relaxing venue with a range of beverages including signature cocktails, wines and spirits. Playing off seasonal ingredients, bartenders create new drinks throughout the year in addition to the lounge’s staples including the classic Mandarin Mule gin and tonic with Tanqueray Ten spiced with ginger, and Golden FAN which is Gin paired with sweet and dry vermouth and finished with orange.

The weekend afternoon tea service highlights the choice of black, green, herbal and fruit teas as well as French press, cappuccino, espresso and a variety of lattes. In addition, a table-side service is beautifully displayed on an elegant silver three-tiered stand, boasting miniature sandwiches, homemade pastries, warm scones and madeleines known as the "Sweets and Savories". To ensure a true luxurious experience, guests are greeted with a personalized letter welcoming them to the lounge. Tea may be substituted for a signature cocktail or champagne. .
