LUXURY, QUALITY AND INNOVATION: IDEAL FOR MEETINGS, GROUP AND INCENTIVE MARKET

WASHINGTON, DC – Mandarin Oriental, Washington DC ranked by Travel & Leisure magazine as the “Top Business Hotel in Washington, DC,” sets the standard of service, accommodating the full range of group needs: conference, incentive, corporate retreat or reunion. The hotel’s convenient location on Washington, DC’s southwest waterfront makes Mandarin Oriental, Washington DC the capital’s only waterside hotel offering views of the Jefferson Memorial and Washington Monument, Potomac Tidal Basin, Washington Marina and the city’s famed Cherry Blossom trees. With easy access to Ronald Reagan National Airport, Capitol Hill, Smithsonian Institution museums and the historic monuments, Mandarin Oriental, Washington DC is considered the city’s most convenient “power meeting” hotel.

Mandarin Oriental, Washington DC has 38,000-square-feet of function and pre-function space, including an 8,300-square-foot Grand Ballroom that accommodates up to 800 people for a sit-down dinner, and can be divided into three equal sections. The junior “Oriental Ballroom” measures 5,350 square feet and seats 450 people banquet-style, and is also divisible into thirds. There are nine breakout rooms ranging in size from 443 to 1,278 square feet, each of which are equipped with a built-in projection screen, a dry-erase board, a storage closet and built-in cabinets. There are wireless internet and mobile phone capabilities throughout the meeting and public areas of the hotel. The hotel’s sales, catering and event management staff can design and facilitate meeting and incentive programs customized to suit individual, corporate and meeting planner needs. The hotel’s waterfront location, elegant meeting space, luxurious guest rooms and suites and exceptional food and beverage presentations provide an all-encompassing experience for the meetings minded.

The Gallery room offers a unique venue for small events. Equipped with a private elevator, self-contained rest rooms, a wall of windows and a large flagstone patio overlooking the Jefferson Memorial, it hosts the TIMELESS Cherry Blossom Collection by Ron Blunt. The collection features exquisite photography of the city's Cherry Blossoms in full-bloom, creating the perfect backdrop for the charming space.

Customized Theme Parties and Events

Any event can be individually customized and designed to meet corporate and incentive needs. The Catering team takes an imaginative and intelligent approach to catering and will work closely with guests to create the perfect menu.

Also, every client receives an event manager who will liaise with the client and oversee all details from start to finish.

Tour Options and Attractions

Ideally located within minutes of Washington DC's monuments and museums, embassies and gardens, sightseeing options for groups include: "Memorials to Great Politicians Past" - a two-hour guided tour of the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, Washington Monument that concludes with the riverside FDR Memorial; a driving tour of Embassy Row, home to nearly 150 embassies and consulates located in Washington; shopping at one of Washington's designer malls; a boat tour on the Potomac River; a show at Arena Stage, Warner Theatre or Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts; or a Washington Redskins, Washington Wizards, Washington Nationals or Washington Capitals sporting event.
