

May's

Newsletter

« Coquettish and shy, they call me Lily of the Valley, I hide behind my leaves, afraid someone will pick me, but when the sun comes out, I'll offer up my heart, as well as a little bit of luck »

Exposition

“From the great Mongols to the Maharajahs, jewels of the Al Thani collection”

At the Grand Palais from March 29th until June 5th is the incredible Al Thani family collection, including 270 rare masterpieces illustrating the history of Indian jewelry

Thème

SALON INTERNATIONAL DE L'AÉRONAUTIQUE ET DE L'ESPACE
Paris - Le Bourget

« The Bourget Air Show »

For its 52nd year, the Bourget Air Show will take place at the Parc des Expositions from June 19th until June 25th drawing the movers and shakers of world industry to see the latest in aviation technology. The first four days of the show are reserved for professionals, followed by three days of opening for the grand public.

Event @ Mandarin Oriental, Paris

This month, our fine dining restaurant Sur Mesure invites you to discover its innovative “infusion cane”. The cane, developed by our restaurant staff, will allow you to choose from a selection of fresh aromatic herbs, which are them infused for you at the table for a perfect end to your meal.

Paris for children

« The Vincennes Zoo for children and adults »

The most recent zoo in the world to be completely reimagined and rebuilt, this new zoological park allows you to discover animals in five different “bio-zones”: Patagonia, Sub-Saharan Africa, Europe, Guyana and Madagascar. Along the 4 kilometer path, you will discover more than 1000 animals in reconstructed natural habitats.

« A Fantastic brunch at Mandarin Oriental Paris! »

On Sunday, May 14th our restaurant Le Camelia and the Bar 8 start the summer season with an exciting new brunch. Against a background of ambient music from our garden DJ, enjoy our fresh juice bar, barbeque station, and ice cream homemade before your eyes! Reservations available through the concierge. 148 Euros per person including a glass of Champagne.

