

SHADES OF DAY

discover our "shades of day" menu, where each cocktail is inspired by a different mythical character and represents a different time of day. join us as we explore the flavors of dawn, noon, and dusk in this unique journey through mythology and mixology.

ushas | 70

hindu goddess of dawn, echoing the fresh start of a new day pisco raspberry & tomato, lavender & vanilla syrup, citrus

amaterasu | 65

japanese sun goddess, capturing the warmth and brightness of the sun.
gin, fig jam, berry vinaigrette, tonic water

inti | 65

incan sun god, embodying the golden glow and energy of the midday sun.
vodka, passion fruit, vanilla yogurt, prosecco

utu | 80

sumerian sun god representing the brilliance and power of the sun at its peak.
bergamot rosolio, dry vermouth, vodka

tonatiuh | 75

aztec sun god, symbolizing the intensity and strength of the sun.
lychee vodka, berry & lychee caviar, prosecco

shamash | 75

mesopotamian sun god, reflecting the warmth and vitality of the sun's rays.
tequila, lime, agave, yuzu & chili kombucha

iku-turso | 75

sea monster from finnish mythology associated with the deep dark depths of the ocean.
gin, apple & herbs cordial, elderflower liquor

erebos | 70

greek god of darkness and shadow, marking the transition from day to night.
mezcal, tequila, kumquat & grapefruit sherbet, charcoal, soda water

selene | 65

greek goddess of the moon, is celebrated in this moonlit marvel.
coconut milk washed roasted ananas rum

SAND & KOAL

