

WEDDINGS

AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BOSTON

ABOUT

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BOSTON

An intimately luxurious hotel, the 5-Star Mandarin Oriental, Boston offers classic New England elegance combined with refined Oriental style. Recently completing a 15M renovation, the hotel offers newly designed event spaces, spacious rooms and the largest residential suites in Boston.

The hotel's prime location on Boylston Street is steps away from the iconic Newbury Street, Prudential Center and Copley Square. Historic Back Bay offers the city's best dining, shopping, galleries and more, with green spaces such as the Charles River Esplanade and Boston Public Garden close by.

The Spa at Mandarin Oriental offers world-class facilities, signature Spa treatments and holistic wellness experiences, recently earning the "Best Hotel Spa in Massachusetts & North America" by the World Spa Awards. The hotel is also home to the newly opened Ramsay's Kitchen, offering global fare by Michelin-starred Chef Gordon Ramsay.

CLASSIC BOSTON

ELEGANCE

Urban elegance, five-star luxury and gracious hospitality define weddings at Mandarin Oriental, Boston. Add to that the city's premier Back Bay address and the possibilities for distinctive weddings, opulent social events and intimate private parties are limitless.

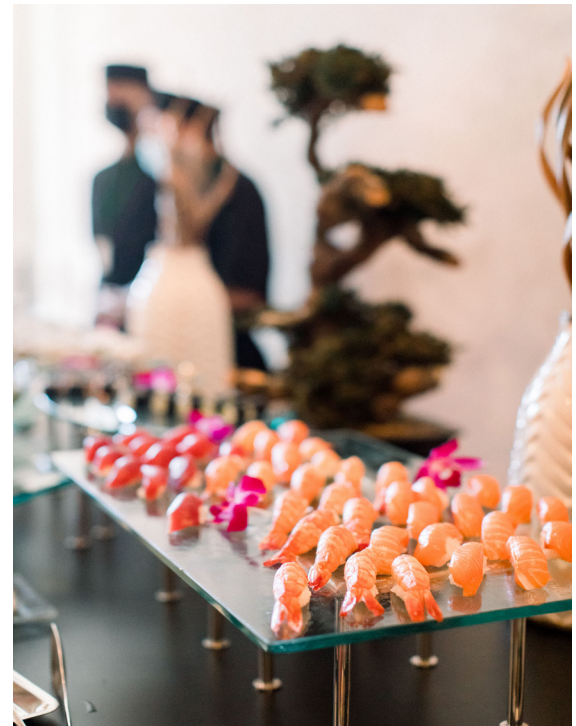

The hotel is committed to delivering exquisite surroundings, legendary service and event excellence for your special day, ensuring a celebration that is masterfully executed with precision, passion and style. Renowned for its unique sense of place, Mandarin Oriental, Boston's spacious, airy and light-filled event spaces provide warmth and sophistication in a city setting.

CULINARY

EXCELLENCE

Mandarin Oriental, Boston Executive Chef Robert Angelo and culinary team work closely to craft tailored menus for wedding celebrations. Locally sourced products and sustainability are integral to menu design and culinary operation.
