

WHAT'S ON

ATELIER SISU – EPHEMERAL

A dreamy installation that combines light, soundscapes and giant, translucent rainbow-hued bubbles. Ephemeral evokes the transient nature of life and the fragility of the world around us — bringing people together in the fleeting moments of connection and community through a playful shared experience. Created by award-winning Sydney-based design studio Atelier Sisu, the thought-provoking, immersive public art experience has captivated audiences in over 40 regions worldwide. The Hong Kong debut includes ‘Colossal’. Head over for a fun family day out, capture gorgeous Instagrammable moment and engage with art in a new way in the company of your loved ones.

Period: 22 March - 7 April

Venue: Harbourside Lawn East, Art Park, West Kowloon Cultural District

TEAMLAB: CONTINUOUS

Hundreds of colourful luminous installations will continuously change colours and sounds as visitors interact with them. Similarly, the adorned trees in the park will also respond with shifting coloured lights and sounds. The exhibits span across the lawns of Tamar Park and extend to the Victoria Harbour, showcasing the vibrant harbourfront areas of Hong Kong.

Period: 25 March – 2 June 2024

Venue: Tamar Park and the Central Western District Promenade (Central Section)

VOYAGE WITH VAN GOGH

Inspired by Hong Kong's iconic Victoria Harbour, and in cooperation with the Van Gogh Heritage Foundation, ‘Voyage with Van Gogh’ brings to life a unique fusion of art, technology and a sense of place at the city's harbourfront and the Clock Tower in Tsim Sha Tsui. When the Clock Tower chimes every hour, the specially created art installation by Spanish artist Vritis of Visura Studio immerses visitors in the wonderful visuals and the captivating original music piece entitled ‘Rain or Shine’, composed and produced by FIF's Artists in Support Leon Ko and Chiu Tsang Hei.

Period: 28 March – 31 May 2024

Venue: Clock Tower, Tsim Sha Tsui (Hong Kong Cultural Centre Piazza)

WHAT'S ON

PIRATE & MERMAID CRUISE

Hong Kong's iconic red-sail aqualuna is recruiting thrill-seeking kids to meet the Pirate Queen on the 75-minute action-packed voyage as it makes its way to Lei Yue Mun, the centuries-old haven for pirates and sailors. Besides fisherman knot tying and gold coin scavenger hunt, Captain Hook's Ring Toss, Pirate's Dart, Steer the Helm and Walk the Plank. Lay back and enjoy the scenic views of Hong Kong while decorating treasure chests and mermaid shells, colouring sheets and taking photos of the wonderfully bedecked junk boat whilst in costume. Wash away the summer heat with a cup of Magic Sea Water and unlimited popcorn, and receive a unique pirate or mermaid souvenir before making the way back to shore.

Date: 1, 7, 14, 21, 28 April

Gathering point: Central Pier 9

SONGKRAN HK 2024

Also known as the 'Thai New Year', is an important traditional festival in Thailand. People engage in cheerful water fights on the streets, which symbolises the washing away of misfortunes and evil from the past year, and welcoming the arrival of the new year. The SongKran HK is held annually to celebrate this traditional and grand festival. Apart from dedicated water-splashing, the SongKran HK 2024 will include traditional rituals, the Nang Songkran Parade, a Chatuchak-style market, Thai street food stalls, traditional Thai dance performances, and Thai traditional costumes experience. This vibrant Thai cultural event welcomes both locals and visitors to come and celebrate by splashing water on each other.

Period & Time: 4 - 8 April 12:00-20:00

Venue: D2 Place, Lai Chi Kok

HONG KONG SEVENS 2024

Bringing together the world's top teams, the HK7s has created many memorable moments at the Stadium over the past 30 years. This year, in addition to the 12 men's and 12 women's international teams, the tournament will also feature the Melrose Shield competitions.

Another highlight, of course, is the HK7s party and music performances. Various local and overseas performers including The Wailers, Journey's lead vocalist Arnel Pineda, Celine Tam, and rugby star DJ James Haskell, will be present. Sports fans and music lovers should not miss it!

Period: 5-7 April 2024

Venue: Hong Kong Stadium, Causeway Bay

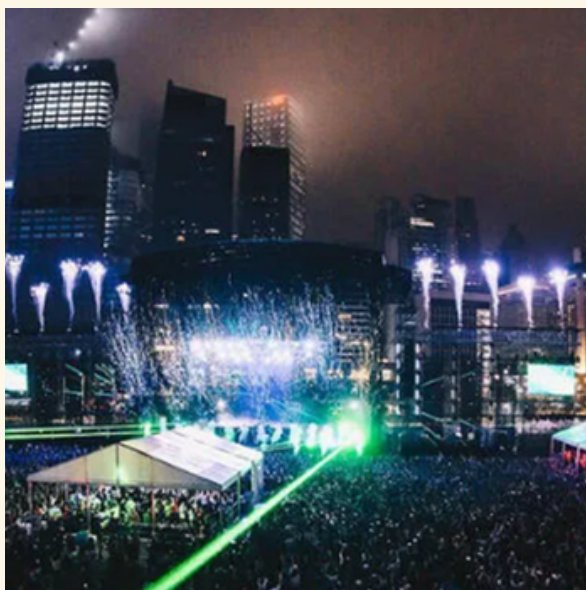

WHAT'S ON

TEA HOUSE THEATRE FAMILY EXPERIENCE

A fun and informative introduction to the traditional art of Cantonese opera specially designed to appeal to audiences of all ages. The 90-minute, interactive showcase, performed by the young actors and musicians of the Tea House Rising Stars Troupe, includes engaging Cantonese opera excerpts and demonstrations of traditional Cantonese music. Each segment is also narrated by an expert host, offering insight into a variety of performance styles and musical sounds. To recreate the atmosphere of early 20th-century tea houses, audiences are served traditional tea and dim sum during the performance.

Period: 6 - 7 April

Venue: Xiqu Centre, West Kowloon Cultural District

CREAMFIELDS HONG KONG

Bringing the beats to Central Harbourfront, the electronic music fest will have you raving, dancing, jumping, singing (or screaming) along to your favourite tunes by some of the world's biggest DJs.

This year's festival will be headlined by Martin Garrix and Zhu on Saturday, and Armin van Burren and Illenium on Sunday. The rest of the DJ lineup includes Chase and Status, Subtronics, Chris Avantgarde, Seth Hills, Hedegaard, Yako, and many more. Anjuna in particular also has extra stages and will be playing on both days.

Period: 13 - 14 April

Venue: Central Harbourfront

FACTORY OF TOMORROW

Endeavours to critically examine the past and evoke imagination for what is to come. From textile works and sculptures to immersive installations and videos, it brings together creations by 19 artists and collectives of Asian backgrounds, reflecting their takes on textile technology and materials, diversity, climate change and our future.

The exhibition is roughly divided into two parts. The first part showcases works of contemporary art collected by CHAT over the years and explores the role of textile in Hong Kong's industrial past through the artists' eyes. The second part then looks to the present and future, using new mediums and technologies to address various issues and perspectives.

Period: 16 March -14 July

Time: 11:00 - 19:00

Venue: The Milles, Tsuen Wan

