

What's On

Updated on 22 June 2025

Flabjacks "WELCOME HOME" Art Exhibition

Wander into the weird imaginary world of Flabjacks, where you can meet chubby friendly folk and embark on a journey to discover what makes a place feel like home. This exhibition is the first solo exhibition in Hong Kong of HK-born artist Ton Mak, features not only 29 acrylic paintings with 2 brand new characters in a vibrant and carefree style, but also merchandise limited to the exhibition including bespoke art toys, artist collection blanket, and tote bags. What is more, a 4m-tall wood sculpture of the cheerful pink dinosaur is awaiting at the gallery to guide you through the fantastical world of Flabjacks!

Period: Until 16 July

Venue: Gallery by the Harbour, Harbour City

Tea House Theatre Experience

From July 2025, the new season of the Tea House Theatre Experience offers a brand-new selection of songs, instrumental musical pieces and performance excerpts. The 90-minute showcase selection of songs, instrumental musical pieces and performance excerpts, demonstrates various traditional styles through a varying programme of works exploring tales of romance, comedy, tragedy and martial arts. The experience also includes narration by an expert moderator offering insight into the history of the art form.

Dates: Every Friday, Saturday, Sunday in July

Venue: Tea House Theatre, Xiqu Centre

Joan Cornellà : Hong Kong Solo Exhibition 2025

This exhibition will showcase a diverse array of Cornellà's works. Each piece invites interpretation and reflection, encouraging dialogue among art enthusiasts and newcomers alike. Highlights include new limited edition figures, new limited edition prints, and the collection of over 100 original artworks on paper. A range of merchandise will also be available, including a new book and new T-shirts.

Period: 11 - 27 July

Venue: The Fringe Club

Hong Kong Book Fair (35th Edition)

This annual mega event brings together publishers, authors and readers, promoting a culture of reading. This year, the fair's theme is 'Food Culture • Future Living', featuring seminars with renowned authors from around the world, a diverse range of cultural activities and the 'World of Art and Culture' zone, all designed to inspire the public to explore the world through reading.

Period: 10am - 10pm on 16 - 21 July & 9am - 5pm on 22 July

Venue: Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre

What's On

Updated on 22 June 2025

Anya Life Hong Kong Pop-Up

Anya Hindmarch brings her signature whimsy to Hong Kong with the debut of her Anya Life pop-up in Central. The playful concept store offers a curated selection of lifestyle essentials, from ceramic tableware and travel must-haves to scented candles and cosy home accents. Highlights include linen pyjamas adorned with the brand's iconic "eyes" motif, cheeky soy sauce and ketchup-inspired candles, and quirky accessories like cereal pouches and Fruit Pastilles keychains.

Period: Until 30 July

Venue: Lane Crawford in IFC

FIBA 3x3 World Tour Hong Kong

Features a total of 16 teams from the world's best 3x3 men's teams, who will compete for the championship. The 3x3 Village integrates urban sports and diverse side activities, bringing new experiences to spectators.

Period: 19 - 20 July

Venue: Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre

26th Ani-com & Games Hong Kong 2025

Ani-com & Games Hong Kong is one of the most popular summer events in Hong Kong, gathering animation, comic and games pop culture from around the world for an exciting 5-day event. The Hong Kong Art Toys Expo will be held concurrently, showcasing diverse collections by various artists and the latest toy figures.

Period: 10am - 9pm on 25 - 28 July & 10am - 8pm on 29 July

Venue: Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre

Hong Kong Football Festival 2025

This July, four of the world's top football clubs, Liverpool FC, AC Milan, Arsenal and Tottenham Hotspur, are set to make history at the Hong Kong Football Festival 2025, hosted at Kai Tak Stadium, the city's newest hub for Asia's mega events. Football fans in Hong Kong and across the region will witness two blockbuster matches at HKFF 2025. In addition, open training sessions prior to the matches will offer a rare opportunity for fans to watch their favourite teams fine-tune their preparations up close.

Match Schedule

7:30pm, 26 July: Liverpool FC vs AC Milan

7:30pm, 31 July: Arsenal vs Tottenham Hotspur

Venue: Kai Tak Stadium

