

The Aubrey × Angel's Share

Angel's Share is a speakeasy-cocktail bar founded in 1993 in Manhattan, New York City and has been credited as one of the trailblazers of the craft cocktail movement. It was the first venue to have rules of etiquette while specializing in Japanese bartending techniques & skills. Angel's Share is known for inventive cocktails while incorporating classic methods and approaches, each creation named after a classic jazz song. The bar has moved from its original location in the East Village, and has since reopened in a landmark townhouse on Grove Street in the West Village in June 2023.
