

Explore Tokyo blooming in shades of pink in Sakura season, and revel in the cultural adventures and natural wonders converge - where unforgettable escape awaits.

JOIN US IN WELCOMING OUR NEW GENERAL MANAGER, MR. DAVID COLLAS

Meet David Collas, the newly appointed General Manager at Mandarin Oriental, Tokyo, bringing over 20 years of luxury hospitality expertise. His illustrious journey with Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group commenced in 2010 at our flagship hotel in Hong Kong, where he initially oversaw food and beverage. David served as a Hotel Manager at Mandarin Oriental, New York, and General Manager in Mandarin Oriental hotels in Atlanta, and Geneva. Tokyo now marks the fifth jewel in his Mandarin Oriental crown.

Having savoured the picturesque view of Mont Blanc in Geneva for years, David now delights in the beauty of Mount Fuji at Mandarin Oriental, Tokyo. An avid skier, he eagerly anticipates exploring Japan's slopes, while his French roots draw him to Tokyo's exquisite food and beverage scene. With a seamless fusion of his passion for hospitality and cultural immersion, David's new chapter in Tokyo begins.

YOUR GUIDE TO ENJOY THE SAKURA SEASON

Tokyo, a vast and modern city that is commonly associated with skyscrapers than nature, is transformed every spring into a symphony of pink as Sakura (cherry blossoms) season arrives. During the Sakura season, cities all over Japan is adorned with cherry trees, gracing not just riverbanks, parks, and gardens but also temples and side streets.

Embrace the tradition of Hanami “flower viewing”, and indulge in picnics under cherry trees, savoring delectable bento meals and toasting with the finest sake as you admire the beautiful blooms.

Discover "Edo Sakura Dori" in Nihonbashi, adjacent to Mandarin Oriental, Tokyo and enjoy where cherry tree-lined streets, an elegant Hanami haven.

“MUST TRY” AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, TOKYO

Embark on a captivating journey with "Totally Tokyo - Sakura" at Mandarin Oriental, Tokyo. Immerse in cherry blossom bliss: a 90-minute spa oasis with Essential Oil and sakura-infused treatments, including a foot ritual, Shiatsu-style massage, and a comforting rice bran and green tea heat pack. Complete your retreat with sakura green tea and a delightful serving of sakura ice cream, fusing tranquility with gourmet indulgence.

For a culinary adventure, savour the award-winning pizzas at The Pizza Bar on 38th. Elevate your dining experience with an Italian twist at the exclusive 8-seat marble top bar, indulging in our Executive Chef Daniele Cason's Omakase menu - a masterpiece of gastronomic excellence.

Enjoy the immersive dining experience at Tapas Molecular Bar, where Chef de Cuisine Kento Ushikubo merges molecular cuisine and fine dining into an art gallery for the senses. "A dream you may or may not have seen" is our latest menu theme, promising a whimsical flavourful journey. Dive into an unforgettable experience, where every moment is memorable.

MORE TO ENJOY IN TOKYO

Shibuya Crossing, Omotesando & Harajuku

Tree lined main street shopping, Laneways such as Cat Street, Meiji Shrine, Nezu Museum, later experience Shibuya Crossing.

Ginza Area

Shopping district for luxury stores or department stores such as Mitsukoshi, Itoya, Ginza Six etc

Asakusa Area

Senso-ji, the oldest temple in Tokyo and The Tokyo Skytree landmark of Tokyo.

TeamLab Borderless

A world of artworks without boundaries, a museum without a map created by art collective teamLab.

FAN CLUB
— MANDARIN ORIENTAL —

For inquiries, please contact

Ms. Kie Kasai, Director of International Sales kkasai@mohg.com

Mandarin Oriental, Tokyo 2-1-1 Nihonbashi Muromachi, Chuo-ku, 1038328 Tokyo, Japan

Website: mandarinoriental.com/tokyo