MANDARIN ORIENTAL, COSTA NAVARINO REOPENS FOR THE 2024 SEASON WITH NEW THREE AND FIVE-BEDROOM VILLAS AND AN ELEVATED SPA EXPERIENCE

Hong Kong, 8 March 2024 – Mandarin Oriental, Costa Navarino is delighted to announce the reopening of the resort from 1 April.

The first Mandarin Oriental in Greece is nestled on the private sunlit shores of Navarino Bay, surrounded by natural beauty, making it a perfect choice for those seeking a serene escape whilst staying active.

This season, Mandarin Oriental, Costa Navarino introduces two new villas. The five-bedroom Royal Villa, crafted by MKV Design, joins a new three-bedroom Villa designed by Alexander Waterworth in offering secluded sanctuaries amidst a tranquil oasis with unobstructed views across Navarino Bay. The magnificent single-story Royal Villa boasts five bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, as well as private spa treatment and fitness facilities. Guests can also relax amidst the serenity of their private pool which offers breathtaking uninterrupted views.

Mandarin Oriental, Costa Navarino is also excited to propose an elevated Spa & Wellness experience. The spacious facility offers seven treatment rooms including a zen-space, a 25-metre indoor-outdoor pool, and a selection of heat and water facilities. A wide range of relaxing and energising holistic Spa treatments are also on offer, including Mandarin Oriental signature therapies and new rituals including The Essence of Costa Navarino.

The resort's Fitness Centre and its team of expert trainers encourage guests to achieve their fitness goals during their stay, whilst a variety of water activities, from paddleboarding to water skiing, await at the Beach Club.

A wide array of relaxing, cultural, and adrenaline-filled experiences allow guests to experience the exquisite allure of Costa Navarino. Options include olive oil tastings, traditional cooking classes, visits to a wealth of historic sites or exploring destinations in Messenia and the southwest Peloponnese. Golf enthusiasts will likewise appreciate the 18-hole Bay Course that surrounds the resort with stunning coastal views, as well as three further signature golf courses in close proximity.

A new venue, The Private Kitchen further enriches the guest experience with bespoke dining or culinary masterclasses for up to 14 guests. The relaxed private space can host lunches or dinners where individually curated menus feature delicious international cuisine, along with exceptional service and a selection of fine wines. Alternatively, guests may use the exclusive venue to enjoy private cooking lessons, cocktail masterclasses, wine or cigar tastings.

Further enticing dining options include Oliviera Restaurant, where sweeping views of the bay are complemented by authentic Greek cuisine redefined with contemporary touches. Alternatively, Pizza Sapienza by Daniele Cason offers a degustation menu promising guests a mouth-watering journey through the world of pizza.
