

Loy Krathong

Friday, 3 November 2017

Celebrated annually on the night of November's full moon, Loy Krathong marks the ancient Thai tradition of honouring the Water Goddess. On lakes, canals and rivers throughout the country, people float small lotus-shaped vessels known as Krathong to 'wash away' their sins and ask for good luck in the coming year.

Terrace Rim Naam

Adults THB 4,500 (net) Children THB 3,000 (net)

Traditional Thai folk musicians and dancers will perform as you enjoy a delicious Thai market-style buffet with specialties from all over the country. Float your Krathong in the River of Kings under the magnificent glow of the full moon.

The BBQ Riverside Terrace

Adults THB 3,500 (net) Children THB 1,300 (net)

Enjoying an idyllic setting on the banks of Chao Phraya River, The BBQ Riverside Terrace offers guests alfresco dining with a beautiful view along with Thai cuisine and many other international dishes.

Remark: please note that Krathong are included as part of the menu price and there will be no fireworks display this year.*

For more information please contact mobkk-restaurants@mohg.com or +66 (2) 659 9000
48 Oriental Avenue, Bangkok Thailand 10500 www.mandarinoriental.com/bangkok