

Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok is undergoing the largest renovation in our 143-year history to further enhance the accommodation and facilities of our iconic hotel, while maintaining its classic, Thai-influenced elegance and unique resort style.

The historic Authors' and Garden Wings, The Oriental Spa, Fitness & Wellness Centre, 25-metre swimming pool and many of our restaurants and bars continue to operate as normal. This renovation encompasses the closure of the hotel's River Wing rooms, suites and restaurants, along with the infinity pool, until mid-November.

- Le Normandie, Sala Rim Naam, Terrace Rim Naam, The China House, Ciao Terrazza, The Authors' Lounge and Bamboo Bar are welcoming guests as usual.
- The Oriental Spa, Spa Studio and Wellness & Fitness Centre are all open for guests to enjoy.
- Accommodation in the Garden Wing remains open. Accommodation in the River Wing is closed and will reopen from mid-November.
- Lord Jim's, The Verandah and Riverside Terrace are closed and will reopen mid-November.

Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok is delighted to invite all in-house guests to enjoy the following experiences during the renovation period:

- Explore Bangkok by Boat, enjoy a 90-minute complimentary boat tour on the Chao Phraya river, discovering the khlongs (canals) of Bangkok as they weave past small traditional houses and witness vibrant river life, all whilst enjoying light refreshments and cold towels. The boat leaves daily at 11am and advance notice is required.
- Thai cooking classes at The Oriental Thai Cooking School, for the special price of THB 2,800, including a visit to the local market.
