YOGA, THE UNION OF MIND, BODY AND BREATH IN AWARENESS

Practising Yoga is the ideal way to achieve healthier and more peaceful living. In Sanskrit, Yoga means 'union', the union of the mind, body and breath into awareness through various techniques, encompassing Asanas (postures) for the healthy body; Pranayama (breathing exercises) for steady breath; Dhyana (meditation) for a stress-free mind and Yoga Nidra (yogic relaxation) for the deepest rest, eventually leading us into a blissful state of being.

At Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok, we are delighted to offer an extensive range of Yoga programmes, from lively group sessions to one-on-one private classes, tailored to meet your specific needs.

Our Yoga sessions are designed and conducted by resident Yogic lifestyle trainer Neelam Khatri. Neelam has extensive experience teaching Yoga and conducting workshops, retreats and programmes for individuals, groups, and children. She has been actively associated with many projects of The Art of Living Foundation, including teaching Yoga at the highly acclaimed The Oberoi Rajvillas in Jaipur, India.
