GUEST ROOMS AND SUITES

The hotel has 120 rooms and suites. The suites, with their own terraces and dining rooms, have been created to host private events and also provide a more comfortable business venue in this prime location. The rooms, some with a balcony or a terrace, have views of either the Passeig de Gràcia or the Mimosa garden.

RESTAURANTS AND BARY BARES

Moments, which boasts two Michelin stars, is our gourmet restaurant and offers one of the best dining experiences in Barcelona. It is managed by the family team of the multi-awarded chef Carmen Ruscaldeda and her son Raül Balam.

Mediterranean light floods Blanc restaurant through a double height glass roof. We offer an all-day dining experience, designed by our chef whose philosophy focuses on natural and local products cooked with respect and inspiration.

Banker's Bar is one of the most interesting meeting points in the city: a combination of an intimate and lively atmosphere where you can sample a wide selection of cocktails and "tapas" menu. Banker's Bar pays tribute to the building's past, when it was occupied by a well-known bank, by incorporating the original security boxes into its design. The bar also has a small outdoor terrace.

Mimosa garden, situated in an inner courtyard typical of the Eixample district, provides incomparable surroundings to relax during spring and summer seasons.

On Terrat rooftop terrace guests can lounge by a spectacular dipping pool while enjoying cocktails and Gaston Acurio's peruvian gastronomic offer with the unique Barcelona skyline as backdrop.

THE SPA AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL

Conceived as a sophisticated urban oasis, the Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Barcelona is an intimate, minimalist space in contemporary style but with an exquisite oriental touch. Covering an area of 1,000 square meters, it has eight spacious treatment rooms: four with aromatherapy showers, two treatment suites for couples and two oriental suites with whirlpool baths and futons for the traditional Thai massage. The facilities are completed by a water area that includes a twelve-metre-long indoor pool, a hammam and rainforest showers, and a fitness centre. The Spa also offers the exclusive services of Miriam Quevedo y Valmont.

MEETING ROOMS

The hotel has two modern meeting rooms with capacity for 40 people each. Both can be split into two spaces for twelve people. Designed in avant-garde style, the rooms will satisfy all your possible technological requirements.

Our team of professionals, capable of providing the highest level of personalized service in Barcelona, will ensure your meeting is a different and memorable event. And thanks to the hotel's design, for special occasions we can offer you an outdoor option in our Mimosa Garden.
