ABOUT THE NOTCH WHISKY

As one the oldest single malt whisky distilleries in the United States, Triple Eight Distillery is leading the way for a new category of American Single Malt Whisky. Since its first release in 2008, The Notch has been recognized as one of the world's finest, earning more than 100 awards, including: Gold Outstanding from the International World Spirit Competition, Best in Class from the International Spirit Challenge, Best in Class from the American Craft Spirits Association, Best in Class from the American Distilling Institute, Best in Class from the San Francisco World Spirit Competition, and World's Best Small Batch Single Malt from the World Whiskies Award.

Tucked away at the famed Cisco Brewers property on Nantucket is Triple Eight Distillery, which has long dedicated itself to making fine spirits, and in 2000, began distilling The Notch. Made with 100% Maris Otter malt, Nantucket's sand-filtered, pure island water, and invigorating maritime climate, The Notch is a collaborative product of nature and the collective wisdom of the brewers, distillers, and vintners of the Cisco Brewers Inc. family, which encompasses Triple Eight Distillery, Nantucket Vineyard and Cisco Brewers.

The unique single malt embodies the Island's geographic location, climate, and its people, and without these elements, The Notch simply would not taste the same.
