MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BANGKOK - ROOMS AND SUITES

For more than 145 years, travellers have followed the Chao Phraya River to stay at the legendary Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok. In keeping with the 2016 successful restoration of the Authors' and Garden Wings, 2019 saw a celebrated revival of this Grand Dame as they completed a USD 90-million loving renovation to the entire River Wing.

Inspired by the hotel's Chao Phraya River location and reflecting the spirit of Bangkok and the hotel's iconic history, internationally renowned designer Jeffrey Wilkes oversaw the redesign of all the River Wing rooms and suites. Light and fresh details, from Royal Barge sculptures in hammered brass to the river's reflection in the rugs and teak floors, lend tropical notes and are complemented by whitewashed wooden panelling, textured linen drapes and rich fabrics from Jim Thompson, in addition to the technology and convenience of the 21st century in the design. Balconies and floor-to-ceiling windows serve to bring the River of Kings into rooms and suites. The newly redesigned guestrooms, ranging in size from 38 to 63 sqm, are all elegantly inspired by the essence of the hotel's historic riverside location, and feature teakwood floors, carefully crafted furniture and beautiful Thai silks, enhancing the resort-style ambience.

The hotel's 60 suites range in size from the 83sqm Chao Phraya Suite, located in the Garden Wing facing the majestic Chao Phraya River, to the 376sqm new Oriental Suite, comprising two bedrooms with a wrap-around 58sqm terrace, large sitting room, dining room for 12 and its own entertainment room, all offering guests sweeping views of the River of Kings.

Deluxe Rooms - These elegant 38sqm rooms feature floor-to-ceiling windows, wooden floors and river-inspired rugs and furnishings. Soft natural tones and Thai décor add to the overall resort-style ambience, while guests can also relax on a private balcony and enjoy views of bustling life in the Thai capital.
