MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BANGKOK - LEGENDARY DINING

Le Normandie - Contemporary Michelin-starred French cuisine

Since its establishment in 1958, Le Normandie has been renowned across Asia as the height of French fine dining in Thailand, a connoisseur's dream of the finest cuisine, impeccable service and elegant ambiance. Awarded two Michelin stars every year since the Bangkok guide's inaugural edition, Le Normandie is acclaimed for Chef Arnaud Dunand-Sauthier's contemporary French cuisine and its outstanding wine collection. Situated on the top floor of the hotel's Garden Wing, through its floor-to-ceiling windows, Le Normandie offers breathtaking views over the magical river. On the plate, exquisite produce and pure, precise flavours conjure stunning dishes that make for a unique haute cuisine dining experience.

Lord Jim's – Bangkok's meeting place

Boasting uninterrupted views of the river, this seafood and prime cut grill is a local institution and one of Bangkok's most beloved places to meet. The sumptuous lunchtime buffet of seafood, roast meats, international dishes and Lord Jim's classics such as pan-fried foie gras are all offered on table-clothed tables. By night, Lord Jim's transforms into a more relaxed and vibrant setting with an à la carte menu of sharing plates, sustainably-sourced fish and prime cuts of meat cooked over a wood-fired grill. An extensive wine list, featuring both new and old world wines, is also available for guests to enjoy.

Closed: Monday between 1 April and 31 October
Lunch: 12pm – 2:30pm Monday to Friday and 11am – 3pm Saturday and Sunday
Dinner: 7pm – 11pm (last orders 10:30pm)

Kinu by Takagi - Refined Kaiseki dining in an intimate setting

Kinu by Takagi is the latest addition to Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok's award-winning portfolio of restaurants. Chef Takagi Kazuo owns the two-Michelin-starred Kyoto Cuisine Takagi, and is bringing his refined Kyoto-style cuisine, known as 'Kyo-ryori', to the Thai capital for the first time. His composed, delicate and expressive dishes reflect the seasons and cultures of both Japan and Thailand by integrating a number of local Thai ingredients alongside the finest Japanese produce. The 10-seat restaurant will offer Kaiseki dining, the refined and elegant iteration of Japanese cuisine that is a true expression of culinary skill and experience. As with Omakase dining, guests leave themselves in the hands of the chef as he creates a 12-course seasonal menu that is an elegant celebration of Japanese aesthetics. In two nightly seatings, the culinary journey starts with a welcome drink served in a Japanese-styled Minka area, before diners are led to the counter where the real theatre begins as they witness the chef, a true master, at work. The experience is completed with a tea ceremony, while guests may also choose to enjoy one of Bangkok's finest sake collections.

Dinner only (closed Monday)

First seating: 6:30pm – 8:30pm (last orders 6:30pm)

Second Seating: 9pm – 11pm (last orders 9pm)

The China House - Chinese flavours served in a 1930s Shanghai setting

A stunning, two-floor colonial-style residence has been transformed into The China House, an avant-garde restaurant inspired by the vibrant Art Deco period of 1930s Shanghai. Within this striking setting guests can enjoy classic Chinese cuisine in a refined atmosphere, while the delicious weekly dim sum menu, as well as a weekend buffet brunch, both have a loyal

Dinner: 6pm – 11pm (last orders 10:30pm)

The Authors' Lounge - Traditional afternoon tea served with old world charm

The Authors' Lounge is located on the ground floor of the original Oriental Hotel and exudes old-world charm reminiscent of the early 1900s. Turn-of-the-century-style wicker furniture and hand-painted fabrics provide the perfect accompaniment to framed photographs of many of the famous writers who have stayed at the hotel since the late nineteenth century. Renowned for its traditional afternoon tea of delicate finger sandwiches, pastries, freshly baked scones and home-made jams, The Authors' Lounge is a truly unique setting and one of the most photographed locations in Bangkok, if not Thailand. Those looking for a small, intimate gathering may do so in one of the four private adjoining lounges.

Afternoon Tea: 12pm – 6pm (last orders 5:30pm)

The Bamboo Bar - Live jazz and cocktail bar

From its humble beginnings in 1953, The Bamboo Bar has grown in status and reputation to become a beloved Bangkok institution frequented by jazz lovers from around the world. The iconic spot was Bangkok's first jazz venue and retains a 1950s ambience. Drinks and cocktails are crafted by Mandarin Oriental's award-winning mixologist team, including their signature cocktails alongside a 'Compass' cocktail menu which draws inspiration from

The Oriental Thai Cooking School - Learn to create stunning Thai dishes

Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok's renowned Thai cookery school has taught thousands of people from all over the world the art of preparing fine Thai cuisine. The morning starts with a visit to the local market with the chef, where guests explore the vast world of ingredients used in Thai cooking and gain insights into the Kingdom's fascinating culture and traditions. Having selected the freshest produce, guests then return to the kitchen where they transform them, under the guidance of the chef, into four authentic dishes. Guests may also choose to book a private class to create an exquisite and customised menu, again under the guidance of the chef and his team. The gastronomic discovery ends as guests taste their creations at Sala Rim Naam.
