MANDARIN ORIENTAL'S FIRST HOTEL IN BEIJING

Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing, Beijing is located in the heart of historic Beijing, with spectacular roof-terrace views of the Forbidden City, and is the first Mandarin Oriental property in China's capital. It is the city's most luxurious boutique hotel and features the Group's core pillars of chic design and architecture, exceptional dining facilities and a Spa at Mandarin Oriental, offering the latest wellness and beauty facilities. Above all, guests are treated to the exceptional levels of legendary service for which Mandarin Oriental is renowned.

The hotel takes its name from the lively Wangfujing district in which it is located and is situated on the upper two floors of WF CENTRAL, Hongkong Land's leading premium lifestyle retail centre. Rooms at the 73-room boutique hotel are a minimum of 55 sqm, among the largest in Beijing, and many enjoy views towards the magnificent Forbidden City.

The design is tailored specifically towards the sophisticated needs of the contemporary traveller, deftly combining residential style and luxurious amenities. A fresh and bright colour palette, floor-to-ceiling windows, the latest technology, and sumptuous, marble-tiled bathrooms enhance the elegance.

In keeping with the Group's reputation for dining excellence, Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing has two stylish restaurants and a rooftop bar – all with access to a spectacular garden terrace. Café Zi offers all-day dining, specialising in Cantonese cuisine and featuring a signature lunchtime dim sum selection created by Michelin-starred Hong Kong chef, Wong Wing-Keung. Mandarin Grill + Bar features classic grill-style dishes with interiors by Adam Tihany, while MO Bar serves innovative cocktails and features resident and international DJs.

The Spa at Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing has four suites offering the refined and carefully-curated wellness and beauty treatments Mandarin Oriental is famed for, as well as a stunning 25-metre indoor lap pool with natural light streaming through the glass skylight and ergonomic, gently warmed ceramic loungers to rest by the poolside.

Within walking distance are the Forbidden City, Tiananmen Square, the National Museum and the National Art Museum of China. The historic hutongs (alleyways) of Beijing, known for their charming courtyard homes, are also dotted around the district, as are ancient, tucked-away temples. Other easily accessible attractions include, the Temple of Heaven, the 798 art district and the Summer Palace. China's most iconic site, the Great Wall, can be reached in under 90 minutes.
