LUXURY VILLA LIVING AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BODRUM THIS SUMMER

Hong Kong, 25 July 2017 – With schools closing and the summer heat rising, now is the perfect time for a family villa holiday in Bodrum, Turkey. Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum is offering two packages who would like to stay in one of the resort’s opulent villas: The Villa package and Presidential Villa package. Favoured by discerning travellers, Bodrum is blessed with a rich culture, temperate climate, fine food and stunning natural beauty.

Surrounded by pine trees and olive groves, Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum is nestled on a hillside overlooking the azure waters of the aptly named Paradise Bay. With 2 km of untouched shoreline, including two private sandy beaches, the stylishly designed resort boasts eight bars and restaurants, a wide range of water sports and many children’s activities managed jointly with Worldwide Kids.

Filled with daylight, the resort’s seven villas are the most spacious on the Bodrum peninsula, ranging in size from 540sqm to 910sqm. The quintessential home away from home, the villas are located on a hill behind the resort for total privacy, and each has its own enclosed beach cabana, where guests can enjoy sunbathing, swimming, food, beverages and even a shisha in complete seclusion.

Sumptuously furnished, the Mandarin Villa, Paradise Bay Villa, Lilly Villa, Melissa Villa and Oriental Villa each has four or five bedrooms, including a maid's room, several bathrooms, fully equipped kitchen, and luxurious indoor and outdoor dining spaces. Their inner courtyards exude a garden like atmosphere, while relaxing outdoor terraces have a private infinity pool, shower, sun beds and hammocks. Indoors, guests have their own sauna, steam room and fitness room.

With breath-taking views of the Aegean Sea, the Presidential Villa is the ultimate in private luxury. Spread over 910sqm, and with seven large bedrooms and eight bathrooms, this two-storey villa features a spectacular outdoor terrace with a private pool, shower and sun beds.
