Superior Dining

Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum launches the season with new dining offers and enhanced menus. New restaurant-bar Lucca features Mediterranean and international cuisine, creative cocktails and dynamic atmosphere, hosting a collection of noted DJs throughout the Summer 2021 season. Two additional global culinary brands, one from the Far East and the other out of Italy, will be unveiled later in the summer season.

The Shops at Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum

Offering the most luxurious shopping experience of the Bodrum Peninsula, the boutiques at Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum bring together leading Turkish brands with iconic global fashion houses. New additions include Adamo, Arte, Bee Goddess, Chanel, Eres, Moeva, Missoni and Orlebar Brown, Sevan Bıçakçı and Vakko.

Wellbeing in Paradise

The 2021 season brings new fitness programs to the resort. Shape Up, Istanbul's leading wellness studio, brings their challenging results-oriented training methods to Paradise Bay. Peter Burwash International \(PBI\), the world's leading tennis management company, offers its world-class services to tennis enthusiasts at the Tennis Center. Suitable for all levels, instruction includes group sessions and private coaching.

A Child's Paradise

This season, Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum introduces enhanced children's programming sure to excite the most discerning of little ones. The resort has partnered with Gymboree, a world leader in child development programs since 1976, offering educational and entertaining activities that encourage confidence and creativity in children. The 'Play & Kids' program help kids develop cognitive, physical, social, and emotional skills through games such as painting to music, yoga, gymnastics, ceramics, cooking workshops and special birthday parties.

The Art Studio allows both children and adults transform creativity and handcraft into original works. Activities include painting porcelain, wood, clothes and pillowcases, creating jewelry, stone design and modern tile work. Create solo or join group classes which teach technique.
