MANDARIN ORIENTAL, BOSTON PARTNERS WITH MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS TO DEBUT ART LOVERS PACKAGE

Hong Kong, 18 September 2019 – Mandarin Oriental, Boston has collaborated with the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston \(MFA\), to debut an Art Lovers package. The exclusive offer celebrates the hotel's ongoing partnership with the museum and the launch of the museum's restaurant 465 Bar and Restaurant.

The package includes a private tour of the MFA's collections and special displays with a knowledgeable docent, including exhibitions such as Kay Nielsen's Enchanted Vision: The Kendra and Allan Daniel Collection, of which the hotel is a sponsor. Luminous and often haunting, Kay Nielsen's interpretations of classic fairy tales are among the most celebrated book illustrations of the 20th century. Showcasing more than 45 dramatic watercolors, drawings and illustrated books from the Kendra and Allan Daniel Collection, the exhibit celebrates the Danish artist's significant achievements in illustration while highlighting some of his work in theater design and animation.

After the tour, guests will experience Chef's Choice Lunch at the museum's newest dining venue, 465 Bar and Restaurant. Executive Chef Brian Flagg's seasonal menu emphasizes fresh local ingredients with an environmentally friendly and innovative root-to-stalk approach. A unique space to sample art on a plate while surrounded by world-class art.

The Art Lovers package is priced starting at USD 845 plus taxes and gratuities and includes:

- One-night stay in stylish accommodations incorporating chic Art Deco touches
- Art-themed welcome amenity
- Daily breakfast in Bar Boulud for two
- Private tour of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston for two
- Chef's choice lunch at 465 Bar and Restaurant for two

The package is available from 1 October 2019 to 31 March 2020, is based on double occupancy per guestroom and is subject to availability. It must be booked a minimum of 30 days prior to arrival and additional nights can be booked at the best available rate. Reservations can be made by visiting www.mandarinoriental.com/boston.

About Museum of Fine Arts, Boston

One of the nation's oldest art museums, the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston (MFA), was founded on February 4, 1870. Over the next several decades, the MFA's collection and visitation grew exponentially, and in 1909, the Museum moved to its current home on Huntington Avenue. Today, the MFA houses a global collection encompassing nearly 500,000 works of art, from ancient to contemporary, and welcomes approximately 1.2 million visitors each year to celebrate the human experience through art as well as innovative exhibitions and programs.
