

CELEBRATE THE FESTIVE SEASON WITH TURTLES, HOLISTIC HEALING AND INDULGENT PAMPERING AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, CANOUAN

Hong Kong, 1 August 2019 -- Mandarin Oriental, Canouan offers guests much to celebrate over the Christmas and New Year period, including an opportunity to witness the release of turtles into the sea. Looking out over the warm, turquoise waters of Carenage Bay, protected by the Caribbean's largest coral reef, the resort's dreamy tropical setting provides the perfect spot to enjoy a Canouan Tropical Wonderland. Five-star facilities, including a kids' club, combined with a series of special seasonal events will appeal to families and couples looking for something out of the ordinary.

Festive season highlights at Mandarin Oriental, Canouan include watching turtles return to the wild. At this inaugural event for Canouan Cares for Hawksbills, arranged in partnership with Old Hegg Turtle Sanctuary, guests will be invited to participate in celebrating the release of Hawksbill turtles on the white sands of the resort's Godahl Beach.

The turtle release is one of dozens of festive occasions taking place at the resort from 19 December 2018 to 5 January 2020, including special wellness and culinary experiences. Up to nine separate events will take place each day, including guest-chef-prepared dinners, sunset cruises, sailing, star-gazing and more. A glamorous gala dinner will be held on New Year's Eve.

For those looking to enhance their wellness regimen, visiting Crystal Sound Healer Khun Noom will host daily introductory sessions to yoga and massage. Keeping with the holistic approach of The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Canouan, Kuhn Noom is an expert in many fields of healing, including cupping, reflexology and Thai massage, she can help alleviate many conditions, ranging from cellulite removal and colon-cleansing to developing mindfulness.
