RESTAURANTS AND BARS

For centuries, Arabic culture has demonstrated a flair for personalised service and generous hospitality. Emirates Palace, Abu Dhabi has embellished that signature Arabian hospitality with touches of opulence on every menu.

Voted “Most Romantic Restaurant in Abu Dhabi” from year-to-year, BBQ Al Qasr offers a retreat for guests who enjoy al fresco dining. BBQ Al Qasr’s seaside gazebos offer an elegant, yet cosy, dining experience throughout the day. After the sun sets, diners can enjoy the flavours of freshly grilled fish, seafood, and meat as the sound of the gentle waves hit the shore. The chefs at BBQ Al Qasr source the freshest ingredients for fresh salads and side dishes, towers of crab, lobster, and prawns, or the catch of the day and the finest USDA beef grilled to perfection.

Glamorous by day and night, Le Café is recognised for “Best Afternoon Tea in Abu Dhabi” with its vast menu featuring exquisitely crafted salads and sandwiches, and artisanal pastries and cakes, complemented by the finest coffee, tea and herbal infusions from around the world.

Renowned for its signature 24K gold-flaked Palace Cappuccino and Camel Burger along with the one-of-a-kind Camelccino, the grand couches and ornate marble tables of Le Café offer views of the towering central dome and the grand tapestries adorning the walls of the interior lobby. Le Café is the place to see and be seen for anyone visiting Abu Dhabi.

A meal in Mezlai is a window into Middle Eastern cuisine, a warm welcome to the long history of Arabian hospitality and a journey into flavours as old as the sands of time, which taste as fresh and inspired as this city of tomorrow.

Vividly woven tapestries envelop this cosy enclave in the hotel. Diners settle into plush divans and overstuffed chairs and generous portions of fragrantly spiced dishes such as Machboos, slow-cooked Ouzi and creamy Harees are served.

Home to Mediterranean cuisine, Sayad offers modish lighting diffused through clear blue aquariums, transports guests into an elegant under-the-sea world before being guided into an inviting dining room full of panache and a panoramic sea view.

With its beautiful year-round sunshine and perfect beachside location, Sayad offers daily menu of light and delicious fare with an inspired, modern twist using the freshest produce and the resort's organically-grown vegetables. Sayad's elegant outdoor terrace overlooking the azure Arabian Gulf is the ideal dining venue for any occasion.

Martabaan, is recognised as a 'contemporary classic' Indian dining destination created by Hemant Oberoi celebrated master chef. Chef Oberoi is internationally recognized for his innovative approach to Indian cuisine, which is also steeped in cultural traditions.

Martabaan affords an exclusive accent to the luxurious culinary canvas at Emirates Palace, Abu Dhabi. The opulent ambience, enhanced with warm hues and decadent brocades framing splendid views of the Arabian Gulf's crystal blue waters and the Emirates Palace Marina is a perfect complement for the mystic flavours and creative twist on traditional dishes, which await enthusiastic fans of Indian cuisine. The 'Tikka Le' Bar, which is a focal feature of the restaurant, adds a sparkling facet to the distinctive atmosphere with a fascinating medley of signature cocktails.

The restaurant also offers special dining experiences in elegantly appointed private dining rooms where guests can indulge in delectable feasts showcasing specialty dishes such as Varqui Crab, Dum ki Nalli, Masala Chai Creme Brulee and more to satisfy every discerning palate.

Breeze Lounge's relaxed atmosphere, complete with comfy seaside couches, low-lit lanterns and the sound of the sea breeze and waves breaking on the shore, sets the stage for a perfect evening. Guests can relax listening to chilled out music while enjoying a cool drink and a tempting assortment of tapas and finger foods.

Set against the backdrop of the stunningly lit facade of the hotel and impressively modern Abu Dhabi skyline, Breeze Lounge is locally lauded as being Abu Dhabi's most coveted outdoor venue to sip and savour the moment. Guests can enjoy expertly crafted cocktails and light snacks, while they soak up the serene atmosphere, relax with a book on plush couches, or find a restful spot under a palm tree and enjoy the breezes off the Arabian Sea.

Vendôme, an all-day dining restaurant, uses seasonal and carefully sourced produce with each dish precisely fashioned à la main by talented chefs. Filled with natural sunlight during the day, immaculate tablecloths, and fresh flowers, Vendôme offers a cheerful setting for any meal of the day.

With an emphasis on simplicity and quality, Vendôme's sophisticated international selection weaves together the best dishes of the Middle East, Europe, and East Asia, always served with impeccable style. Guests can linger over a long breakfast on the sunny terrace, enjoy a weekend lunch with friends, or indulge in a sumptuous dinner choosing from healthy salads or soups, to hearty curries or filet de boeuf at this one-of-a-kind hotel buffet.

Few of the world's most highly regarded restaurants are as storied as London's legendary Hakkasan. This Michelin-starred restaurant attracts a constellation of glamorous celebrities, world leaders and discerning gourmets with its sultry Chinois-chic décor and modern take on Cantonese cuisine. The restaurant's dimly lit Ling Ling lounge encourages close conversation while its sophisticated outdoor terrace offers the perfect venue for a night out. Signature offers include the fabulous Hakka Friday brunch and Hakkatini nights.

Cascades, Emirates Palace's West Beach Club restaurant is aptly named for the cascading waterfalls and charming grottos within the adjacent water park. Situated at the edge of an inviting pool, diners can enjoy fresh salads, grilled sandwiches, and casual dining favourites such as pizza and nachos while relaxing on the open-air terrace.
