Indulging in good food is an important part of the winter holidays, and The Excelsior's bars and restaurants will offer a wide selection of festive dining options for guests to choose from:

ToTT's and Roof Terrace

Guests can enjoy a festive start to their day with brunch at ToTT's and Roof Terrace, where free flow Veuve Clicquot champagne, and a selection of fresh seafood and other delicacies will be on offer. Brunch prices start from HKD738. On Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, a five-course dinner to delight eyes and taste-buds will be served. Prices from HKD1,188.

The best place in town to welcome in the arrival of 2017, the restaurant will be decorated to resemble old Shanghai, on New Year's Eve. With a four-piece jazz band playing music from the 1920s, staff will wear uniforms inspired by that era, and guests are invited to get into the swing by coming along dressed as a tai-pan or pretty Shanghainese lady. Prices for a six-course dinner start from HKD2,288.

Café on the 1st

Christmas and New Year are times for giving, so The Excelsior's Santa Claus will go around the restaurant with presents for the children, and there will be a choir singing Christmas carols. Festive buffet from HKD608 per adult and HKD398 per child.

Cammino

Guests will be able to enjoy an intimate celebration over an Italian brunch from HKD448 or four-course dinner from HKD638 during the festive period.

Yee Tung Heen

As an alternative to the traditional Christmas lunch or dinner, the hotel's award-winning Chinese restaurant will offer Cantonese cuisine prepared with a modern twist.
