PET FRIENDLY LUXURY AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, GUANGZHOU

Hong Kong, 11 April 2018 – Mandarin Oriental, Guangzhou is now offering guests and their pets a luxury stay. Special animal-friendly rooms will be filled with pet amenities such as water and food bowls and a sumptuous sleeping cushion, to make it a memorable and comfortable visit.

Other animal-friendly treats include a tailor-made pet menu created by Executive Chef Jonathan Shea. A “pet on vacation” door sign, a pet-edible welcome cake and an exclusive Mandarin Oriental “fan” collar tag engraved with the pet’s name to make the experience even more fun.

To make the most of a stay with their pet, guests can book the Suite Temptations accommodation package, which includes:

- A complimentary third or fourth night, when staying for two or three consecutive nights in one of the hotel’s luxurious suites.
- Daily breakfast for two people, one-way limousine airport transfer.
- A CNY880 credit voucher at The Spa, the only Forbes Five-Star spa in Guangzhou.

Pet-friendly accommodation is available for both dogs and cats. The total weight per pet should not exceed 10kg, and there is a maximum of one pet per room. The additional charge for pet-friendly accommodation is CNY800 per night.

For further information and reservations, visit www.mandarinoriental.com/guangzhou. Rooms are subject to availability, reservations should be made at least five days in advance and terms and conditions apply.
