MANDARIN ORIENTAL, HONG KONG TO CELEBRATE

Hong Kong, 2 March 2023 – Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong will be celebrating “60 Fantastic Years” throughout 2023 with a host of special events and new initiatives to recognise this milestone achievement. The year-long programmes will commemorate the iconic hotel’s past 60 years, in the heart of Hong Kong as well as in the hearts of Hong Kong people.

Celebrations commenced at Chinese New Year with the unveiling of ‘The Mandarin at 60 Exhibit’ which is a permanent historical archive which is located in the East Lobby for a public viewing. The Chinese New Year Celebrations marked the start of a series of special events and promotions throughout 2023.

Culinary events

Home to nine individually unique restaurants and bars of which two boast Michelin stars, Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong will offer guests and visitors a calendar of culinary adventures from internationally acclaimed 2* Michelin chefs from its sister properties:

- 12 – 14 October 2023: Chef Fei from Jiang, Mandarin Oriental, Guangzhou and The Bay, Mandarin Oriental, Shenzhen.

Mandarin Grill + Bar has been long renowned as Hong Kong's favourite dining room and has retained its Michelin star since 2009 for 14 consecutive years. Each of the three chefs, will be presenting their exceptional cuisines during May, July and September respectively.

Man Wah, one of the hotel's signature Michelin-starred restaurants ushered in a new era of Cantonese fine dining when it reopened in 2021. This dining institution continues its legacy as an exquisite homage to time-honoured Cantonese cuisine. In October, Chef Fei, one of China's most renowned chefs will specially curate a seasonal menu featuring classic Cantonese dishes from his eponymous restaurants in Guangzhou and Shenzhen.

Guest bartenders from Asia's 50 Best Bar will also be making their debut takeovers at The Aubrey, an elevated Japanese izakaya inspired by the journey of a hungry travelling mind. The Aubrey is currently ranked no.38 in Asia's 50 Best Bar Awards since its opening in 2021. The guest shifts include Shingo Gokan, the recipient of Bartenders' Bartender Awards, Nutmeg & Clove (no.36), Hope & Sesame (no.18), MO Bar from Mandarin Oriental, Singapore (no.8), and The Bamboo Bar from Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok (no.46).

Spa & Wellness

Honouring the hotel's Chinese heritage and original design, The Mandarin Spa offers a haven of tranquillity in the heart of the hotel and is renowned for providing holistic rejuvenation and relaxation in a meditative setting designed to sooth the body, mind and spirit.

60 Moments of Philanthropy

‘Acting with Responsibility’ has always been one of the Guiding Principles across Mandarin Oriental hotels, and we are fully committed to improve our environmental footprint across all operations. In celebration of 60th anniversary celebration, the hotel has launched the ‘Giving Back to Hong Kong’ philanthropic campaign and partnered with local charities including Food Angel, Make A Wish Foundation, Chicken Soup, Food Link, Help for Domestic Workers, Blossom Minds and The Purpose Business. Our colleagues have delivered almost 5,000 hours of community services since the beginning of the campaign and have pledged a further 17,000 hours in celebration of the upcoming 60th anniversary (a total of 21,900 hours: 60 years x 365 days). The hotel will also offer 60 placements to Hong Kong students to launch their careers in hospitality industry.

“We are delighted to be celebrating our 60th anniversary this year in the heart of Hong Kong. There is no better time to rediscover or revisit your favourite city, and we very much await the return of our guests from all around the world to be a part of our milestone celebration all year around. We are incredibly grateful for the loyal support and many kindnesses we have received during the most challenging times, and we are now more than ready to
