NEW CLUB LOUNGE AND DINING FACILITIES AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, HONG KONG

HONG KONG, 25 February 2021 – Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong has completed its latest renovation programme and unveiled a new club lounge as well as upgraded and refreshed dining facilities on the iconic hotel's top floor.

The Mandarin Club, a new 6,200 square feet club lounge on the 23rd floor provides guests with a luxurious all-day retreat overlooking Statue Square Garden and the surrounding cityscape. The space effortlessly blends comfort with luxury and features a boardroom, dining area and lounge while providing a range of dining and concierge services for Club guests throughout the day.

On the 25th floor, Michelin-starred Man Wah continues its reputation as Hong Kong's most beautiful dining space with a new makeover. Enjoying panoramic views of Victoria Harbour and the Hong Kong skyline, the famed windows and delicate Chinese details throughout the venue play an integral part of the dining experience. Guests can enjoy a new menu of exquisite time-honoured Cantonese cuisine by Executive Chinese Chef Wing-Keung Wong in either the main restaurant or one of the new private dining rooms. Chef Wong has introduced his interpretation of ancient recipes for the modern palate to the menu, while also retaining his signature dishes.

Situated on the same floor is the hotel's newest restaurant, The Aubrey, which is a collaboration with award-winning international restaurant group, Maximal Concepts. Inspired by Japonism, the mid-nineteenth-century art movement, The Aubrey channels the whimsical vibe of Japanese izakayas in Ginza. Using the finest Japanese ingredients and traditional cooking techniques, guests can enjoy an array of culturally rich beverage and dining experiences.
