

IN SEARCH OF URBAN STREET ART BY MANDARIN ORIENTAL, HONG KONG

Hong Kong, 17 July 2019 – As an advocate of the arts, Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong is delighted to present a new curated excursion for guests that offers to fully immerse them into the city's urban street art scene while exploring the cultural charm of Hong Kong.

Located in the heart of Hong Kong's Central district, the hotel is within walking distance to the vibrant street art scene hidden amongst towering skyscrapers, local shops and residential buildings. The street art tour is led by a resident storyteller who takes guests on a thought-provoking journey that allows them to experience the city from a new and unexpected angle.

Guests will discover hidden artistic murals and see where international and local artists have used alleyways and buildings as their canvas. The tour combines the neighbourhood's long-time classic wall art, as well as revealing new painted treasures of Hong Kong. Guests will also gain an in-depth understanding about the history of Hong Kong's street art, the artists and their techniques as well as the stories behind the site-specific artworks.

The half-day street art walking tour is priced at HKD 3,400 for up to two guests, and HKD 500 for each additional person. By booking the hotel's Bed and Breakfast room package, with rates starting from HKD 4,480 per room per night, guests can enjoy a truly immersive experience in the heart of this vibrant city.
